To Cheryl, a real nice girl who caused me with communication. I miss Class. I learn a lot in Trans. I'm not a real alcoholic. Your a real drinker and I'm always a lawman '73

Cheryl,
You've always been so sweet to me thanks! there were times when i really needed it!
Let's hope our friendship grows with our years in high school!
Good luck always! Really!

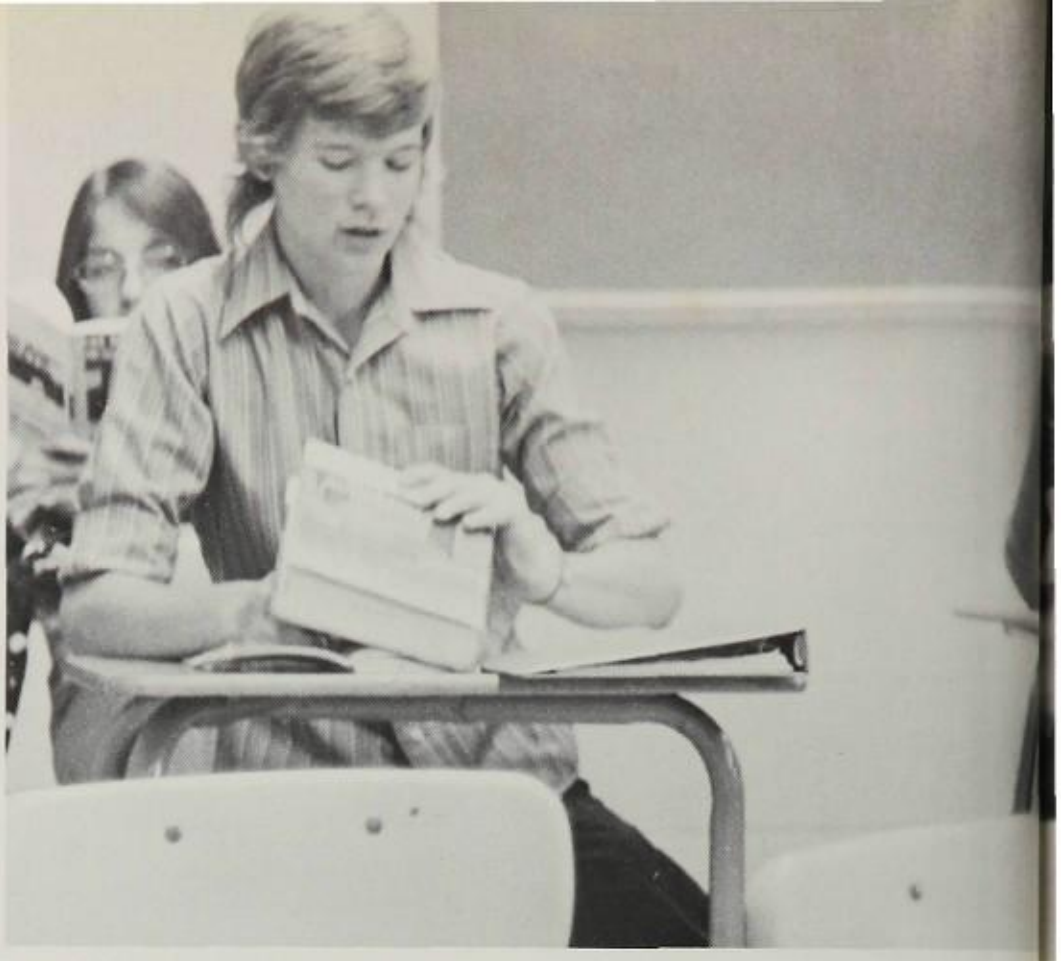
Yearbook Staff



Sophomores Kathy Giuffre, Tim Crawford, Karen Miles, Treva Guthrie, Mike 11 class.

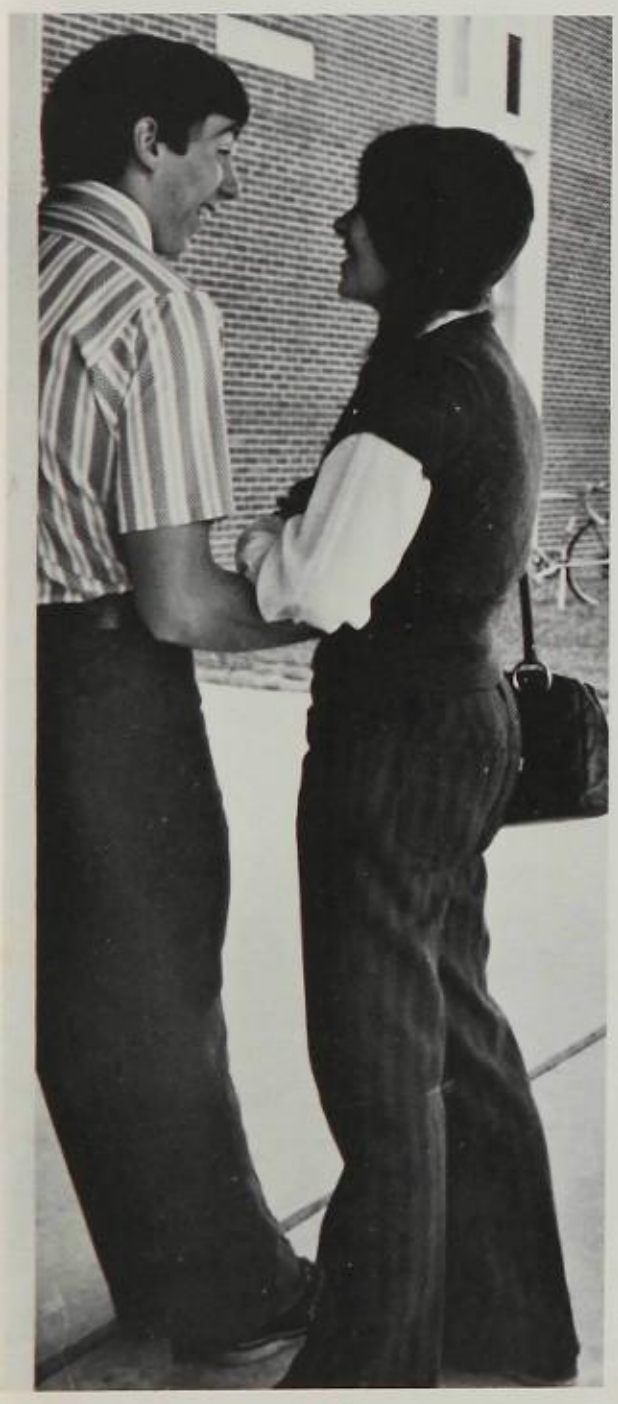
Throughout the week the cheerleaders' signs spark enthusiasm for the upcoming Friday game.

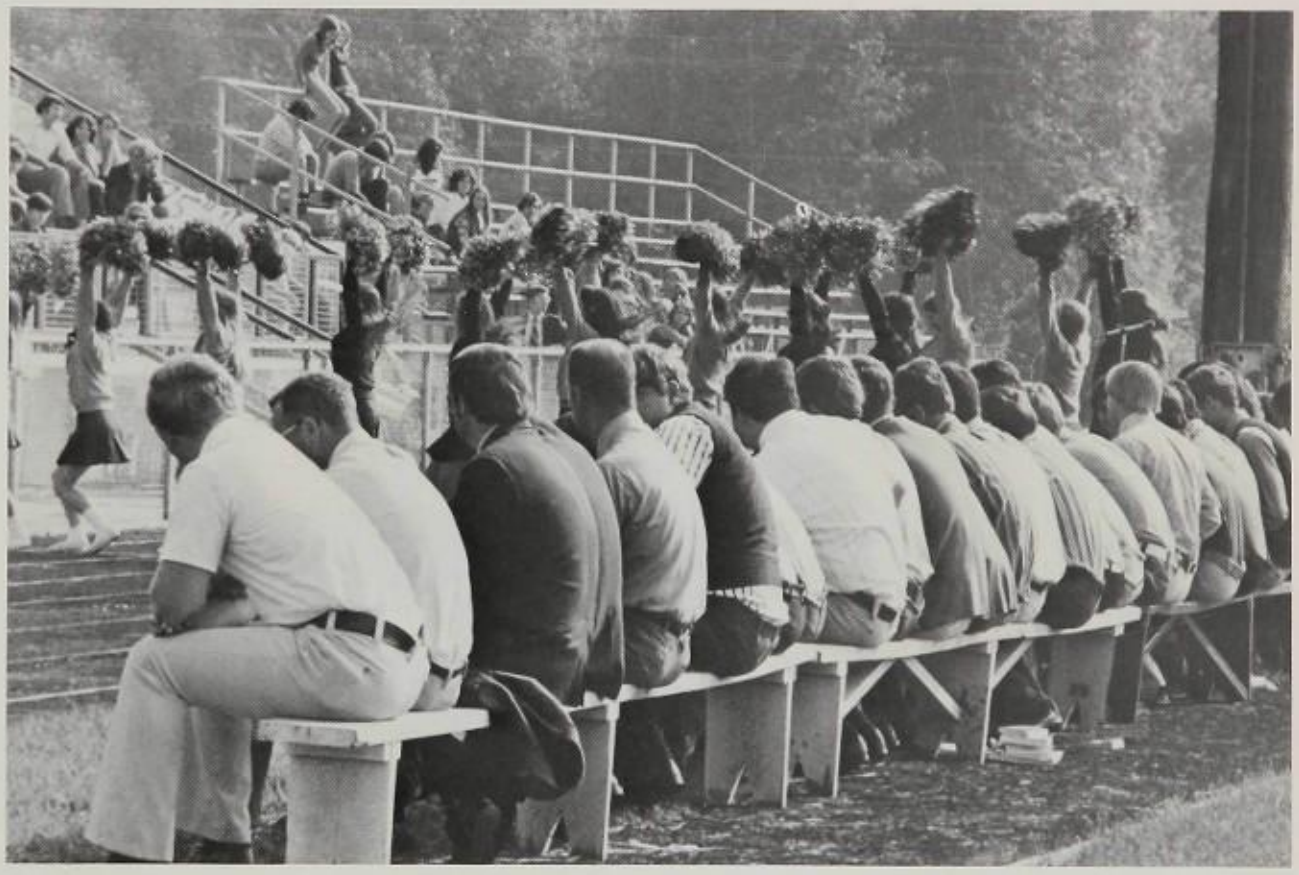
Sophomore Don Knox prefers to daydream during his "out" period while his friends catch up on their homework.

There is a time for every purpose. No matter how far away it seems, the pursuit of a dream is only a moment away.

Alexander, and Sharon Slocumb combine eating with English studies in their period



Seniors Mark Stelzer and Melanie Thomas take a minute out of school activities to meet together outside.



At the first pep rally of the year, cheerleaders, coaches, and the football team "psych out" the crowd for a Cincinnati victory.

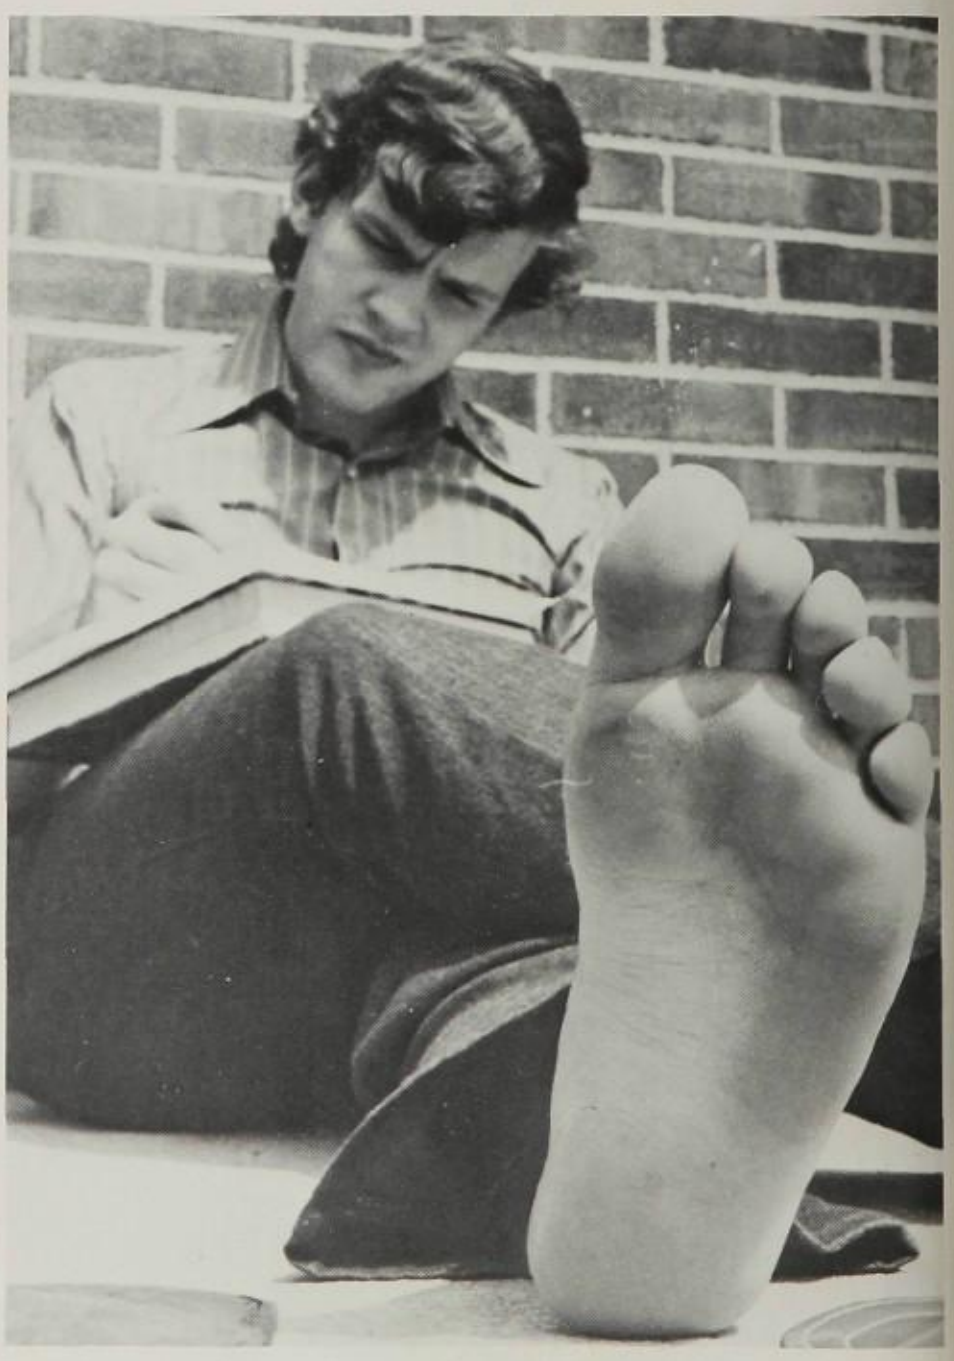
Senior Tim Richards day dreams as he gives the peace sign.



As long as he's outside, Senior Jeff Kessler is allowed to study barefooted.

Everyone strives within himself to make tomorrow better. The fight against loneliness . . .

A devoted fan waits to get a Viking ticket.

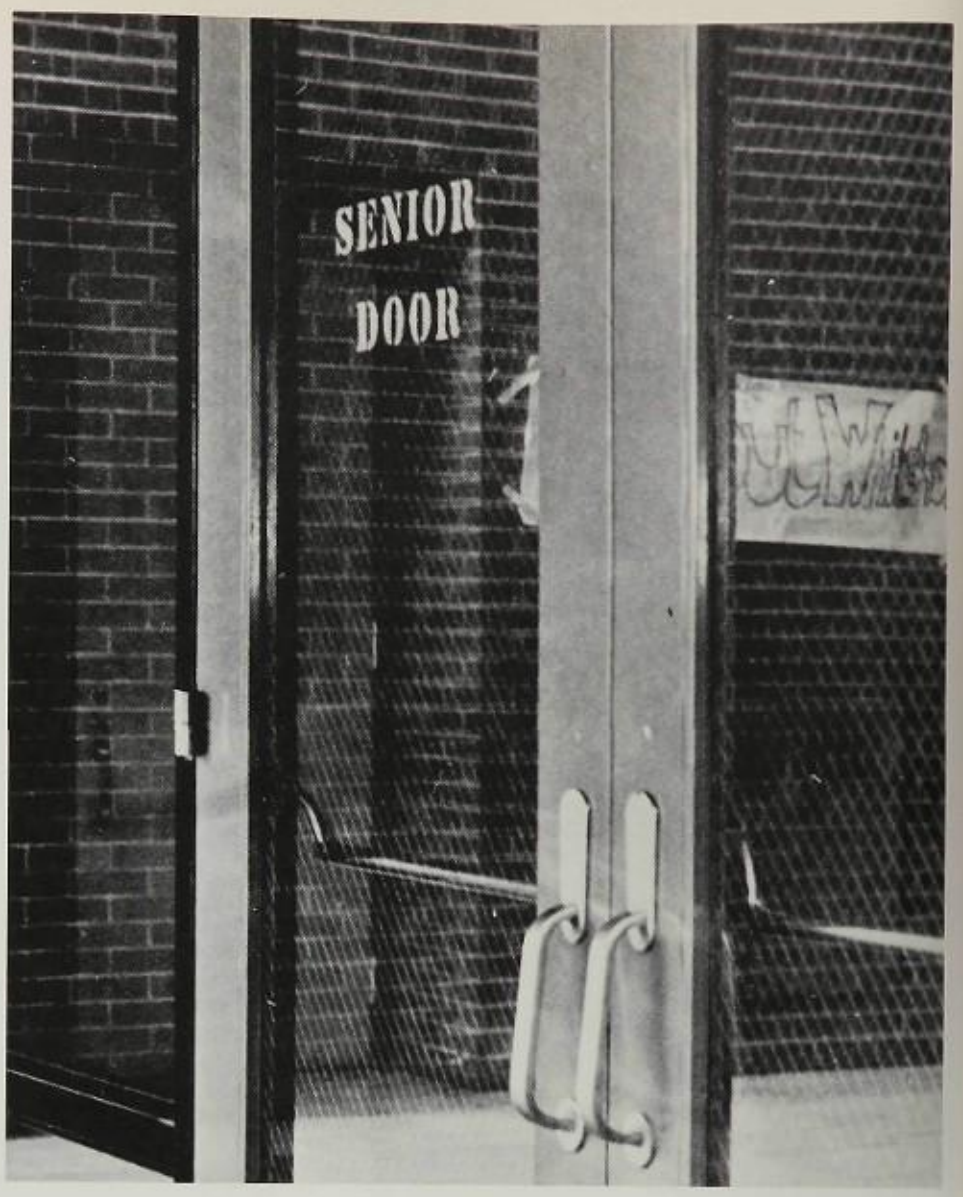
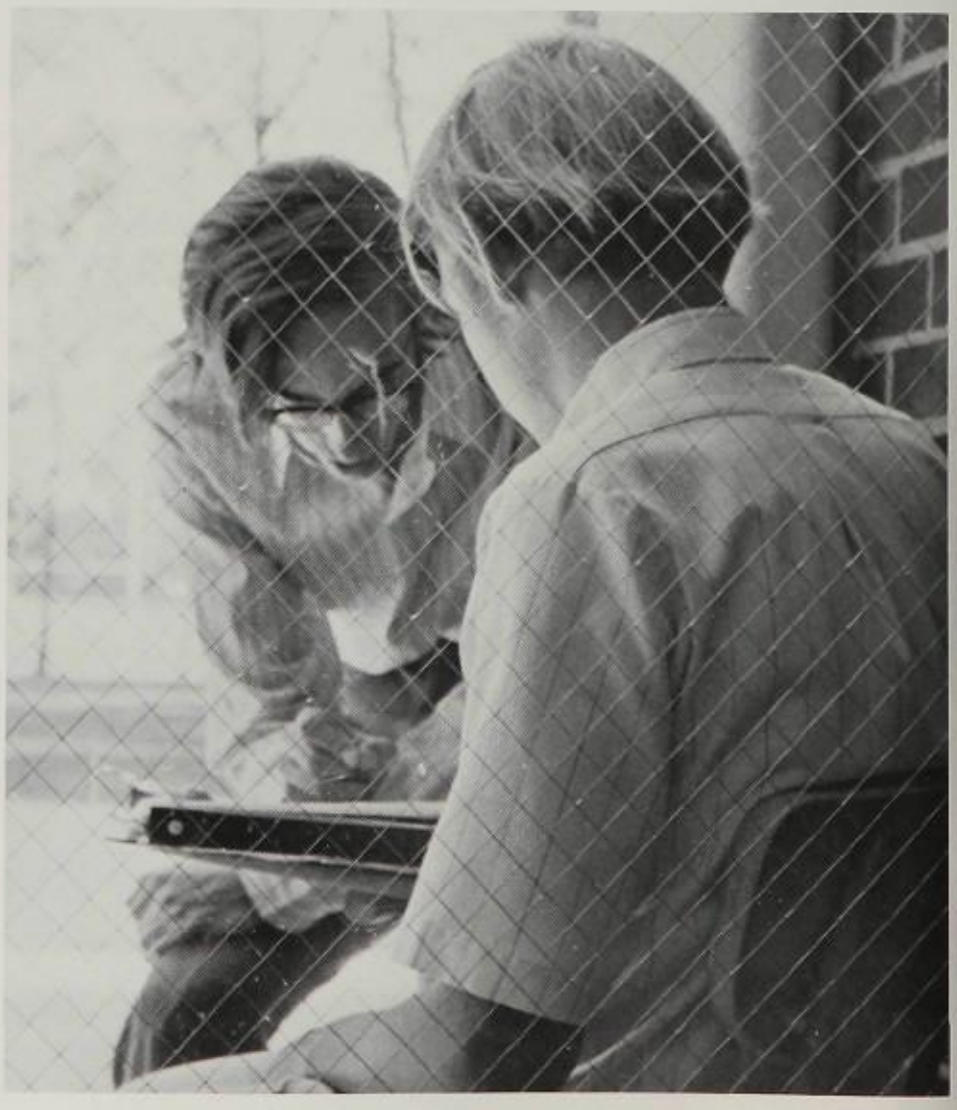
The need for acceptance . . .



The beginning of the end and the end of the beginning . . .

Coach Howe builds spirit at the opening pep rally.



Friendship is the chief way of interchanging opinions.

Cheryl,
You a funny ol
a friend + I'm glad to have known you
these past years. Stay sweet + see ya over the summer + next 2
years here at NHS.
Best of Luck always in whatever you do.

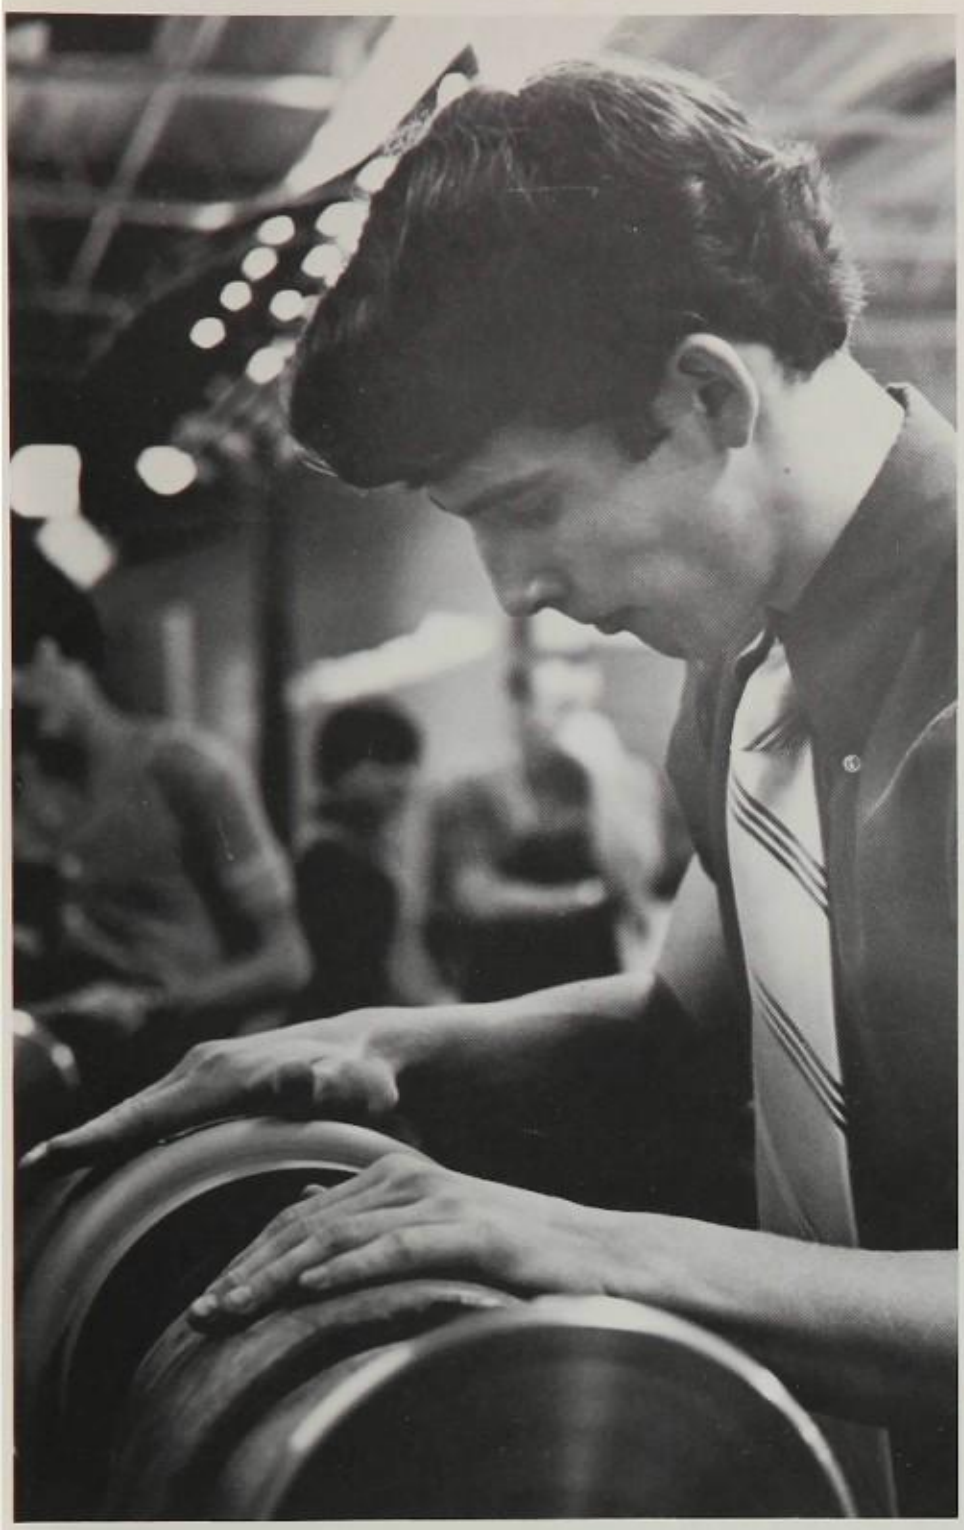
NORTHLAND

SEN

Even the comic strip may provide educational value.

Senior Eddie Fowler and Sophomore Jeff Derr meet for battle of the wits over a chess board.



Senior Mike Huston strives for perfection in his wood project.

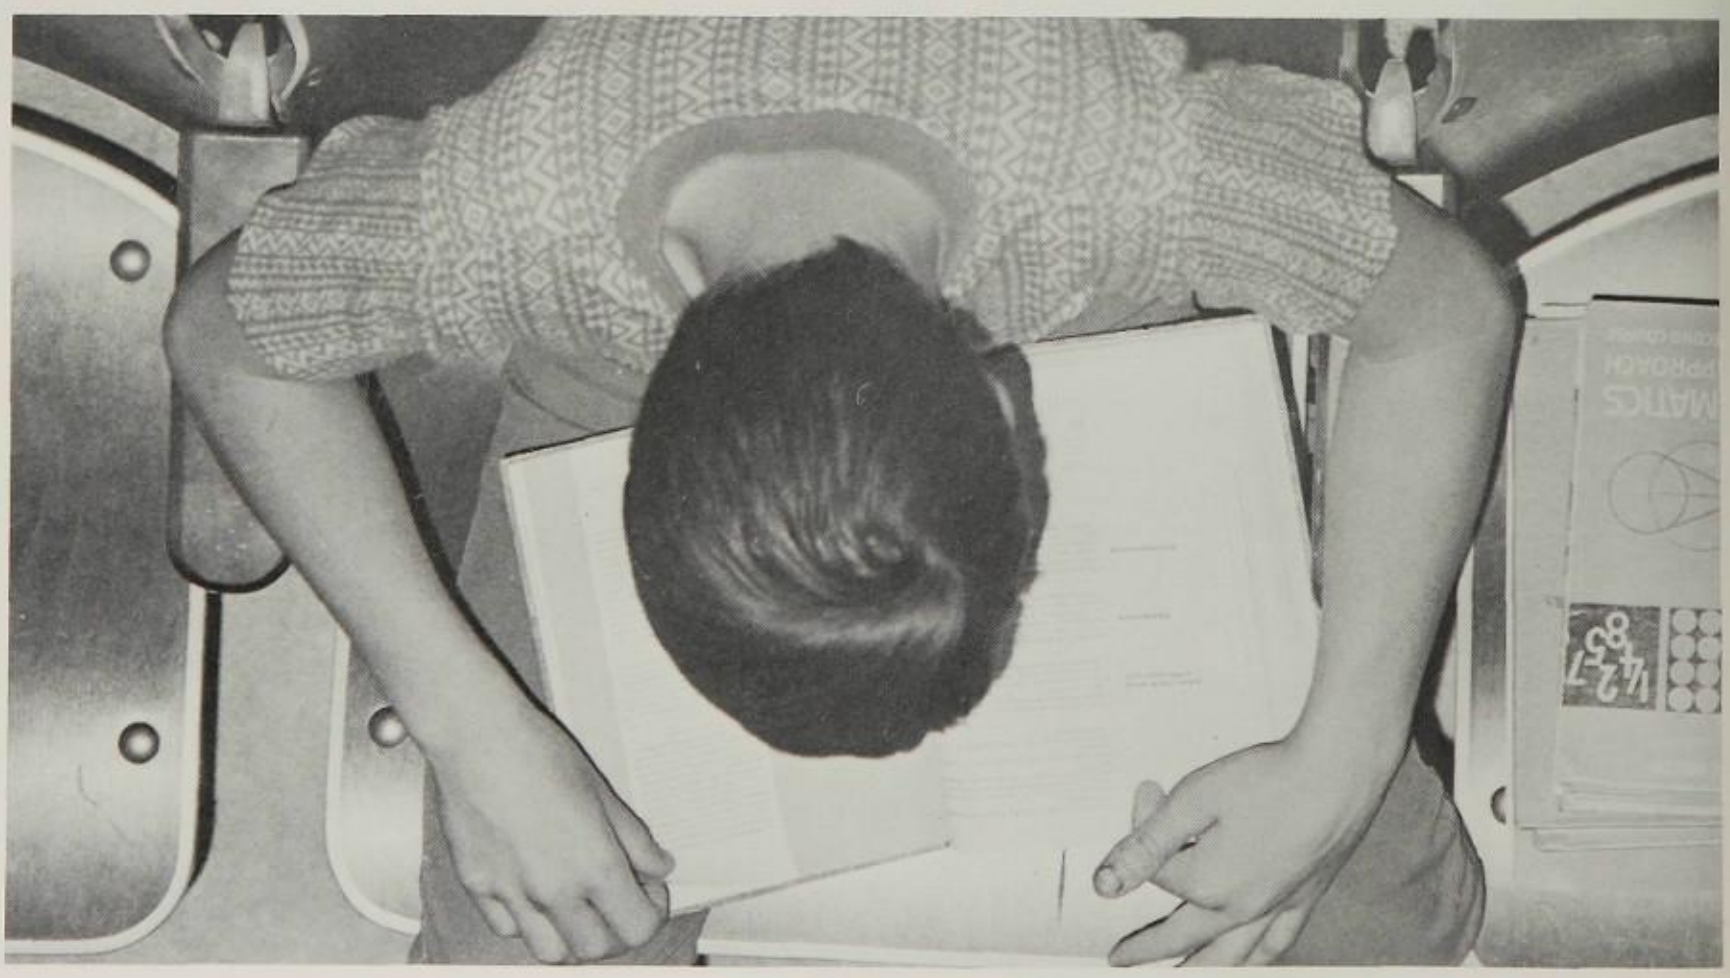
Whether it's winning or losing, competition always teaches a lesson.

and the will for achievement.

Senior Brent Massie repairs a lawn mower for a shop class.



Seat No. 14 seems engrossed in a science assignment.

"What's that?" one cooking student exclaims at a first attempt by a fellow student.

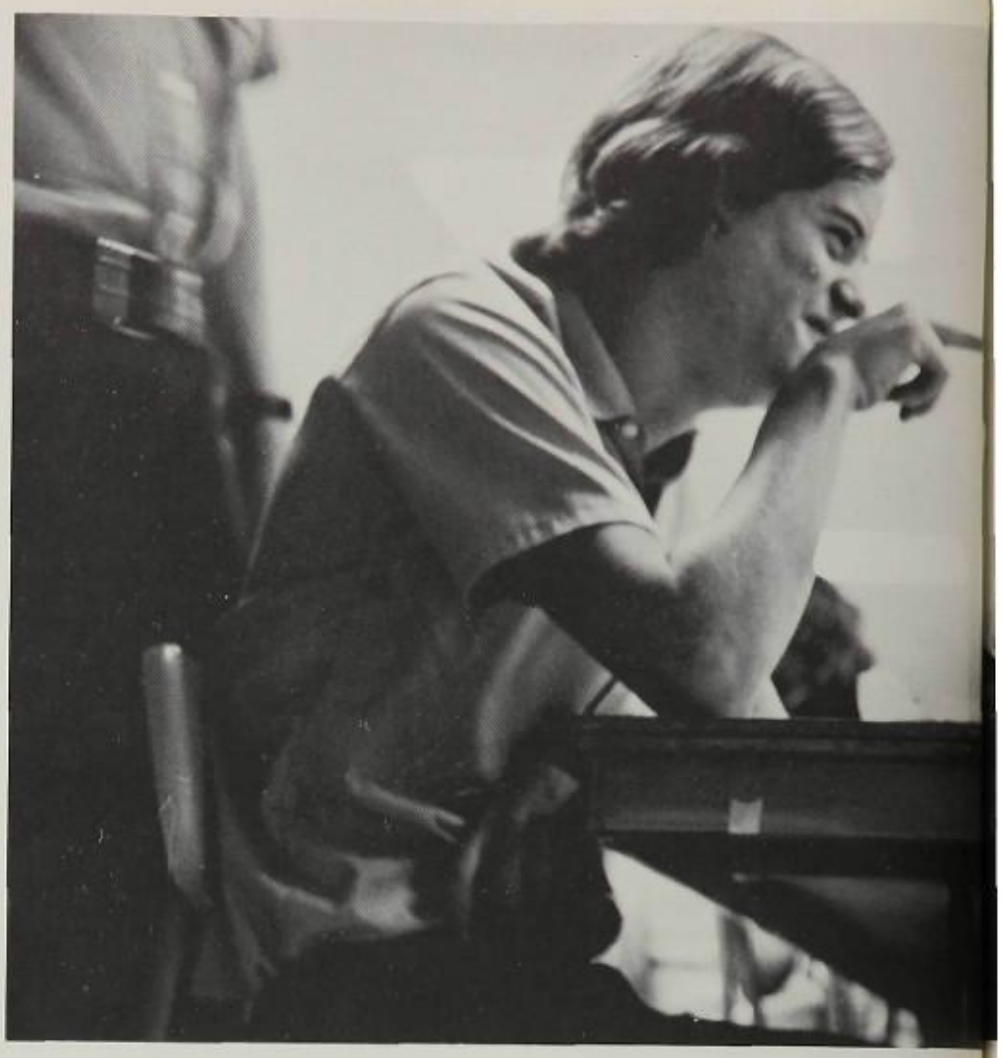
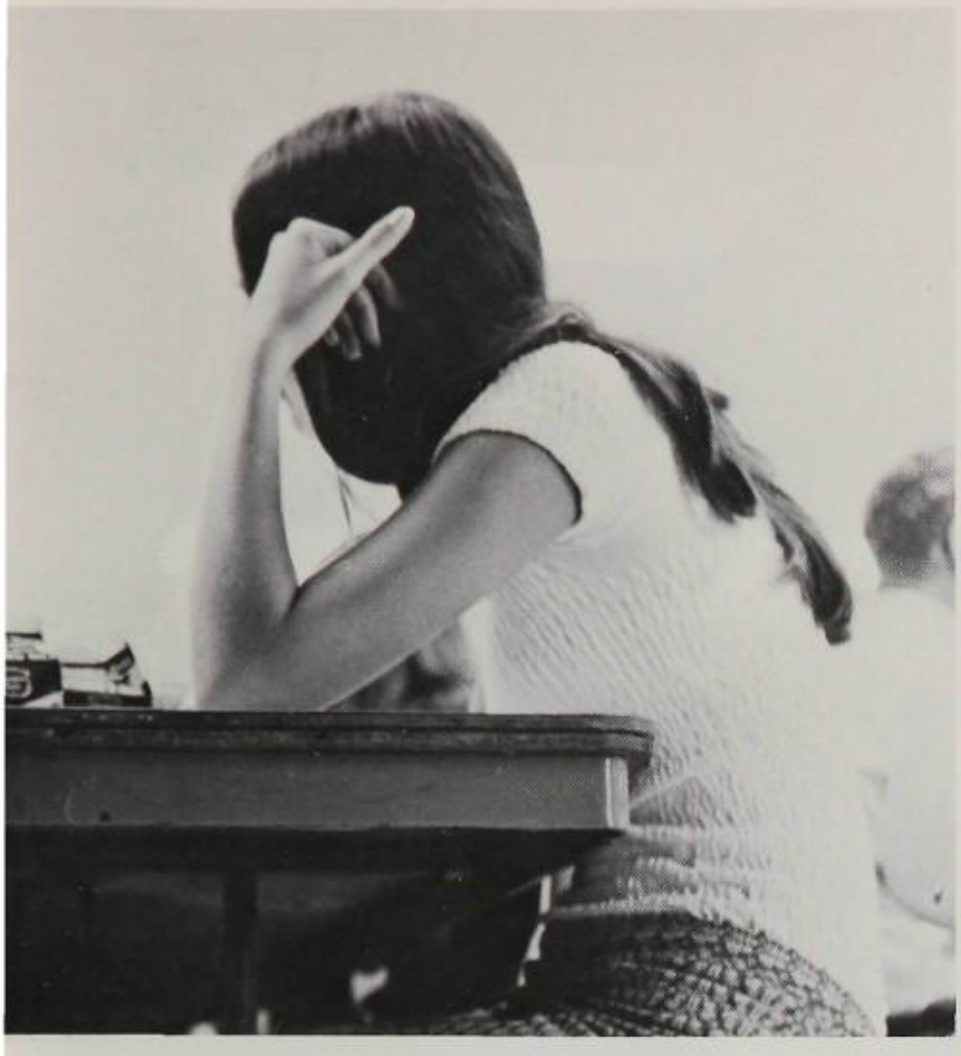
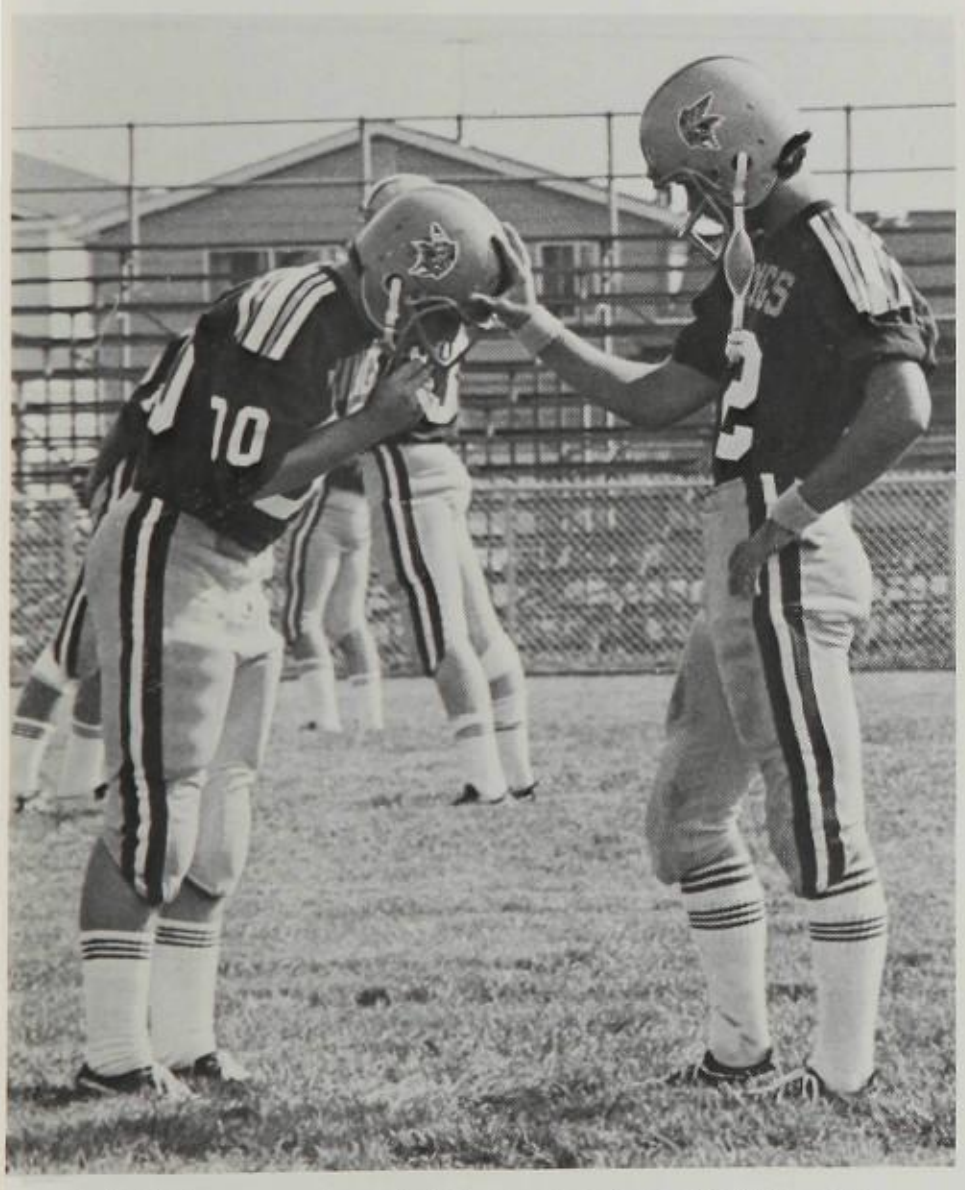
Senior Cheerleader Tami Hill and her sophomore "little sis," Kelley Russell, lead the crowd in "Battle Cry."



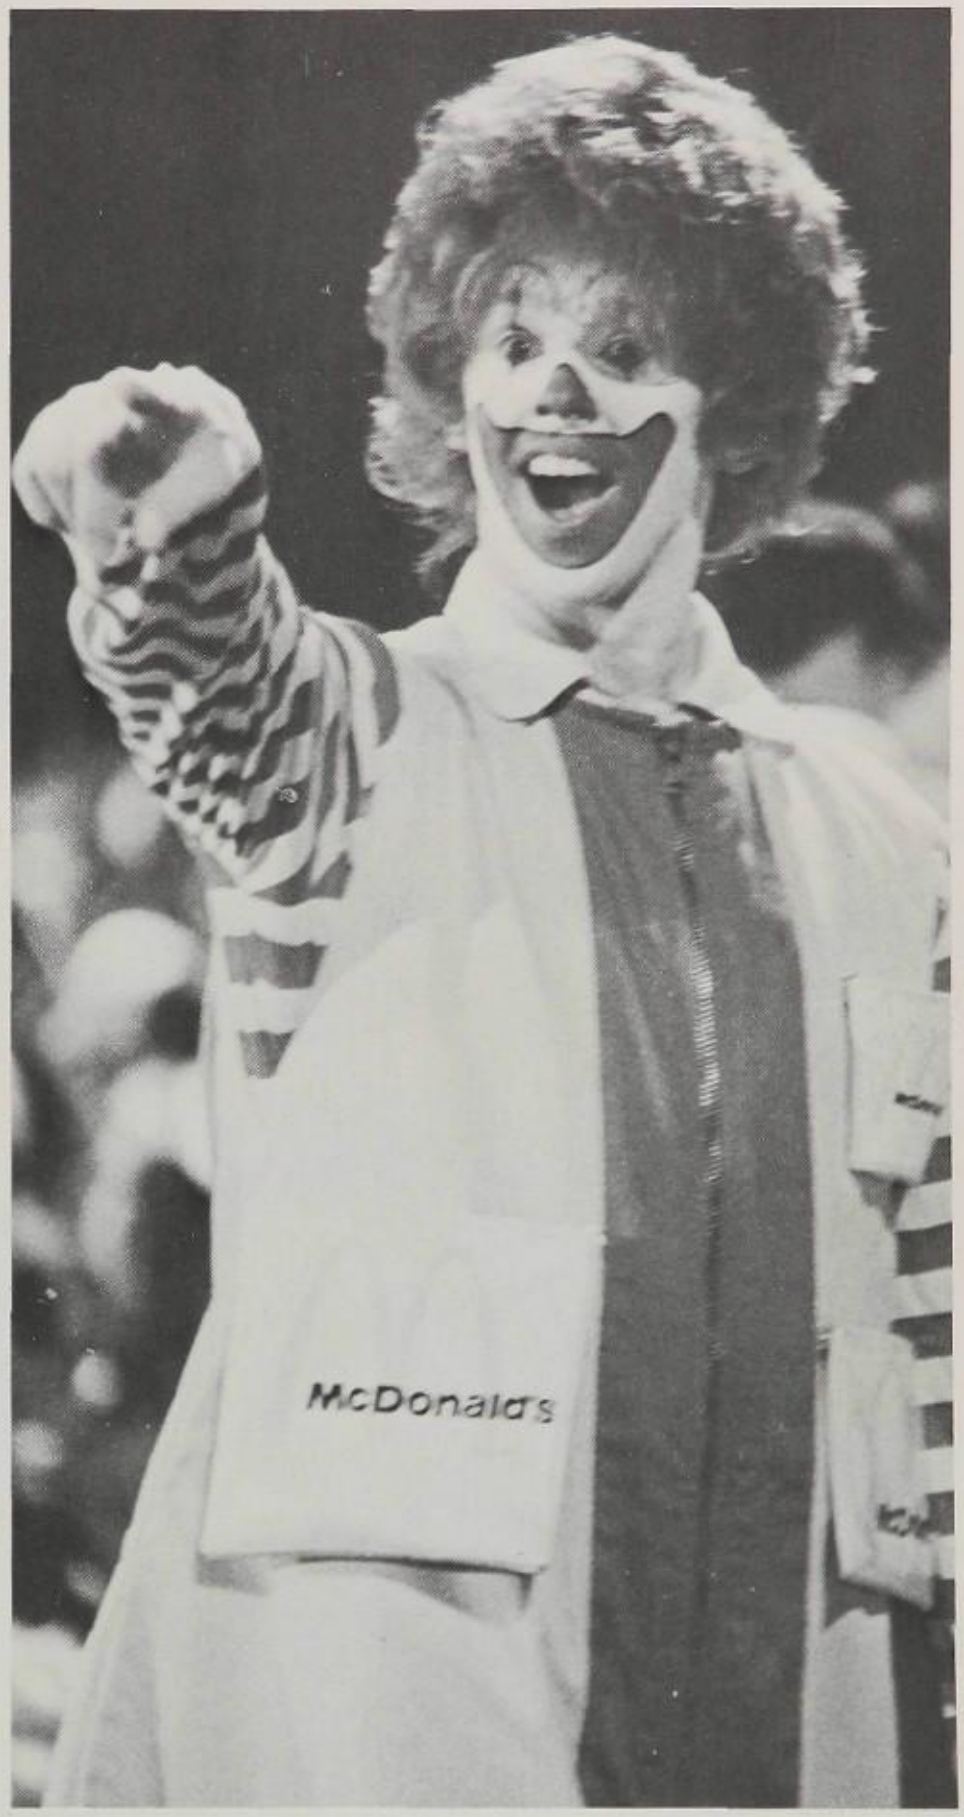
Senior Rick Clark makes sure he gets his point across to his girlfriend.

Long hours of practice and patience yield an exciting performance by the band and Valkyries to the tune of "We're Together."





Football players run through drills to get ready for the Friday game.



Ronald McDonald gives Northland fans "a break today" at the first home game halftime show.

We strive to achieve our goals and often find that looking toward tomorrow is better than looking in the past.

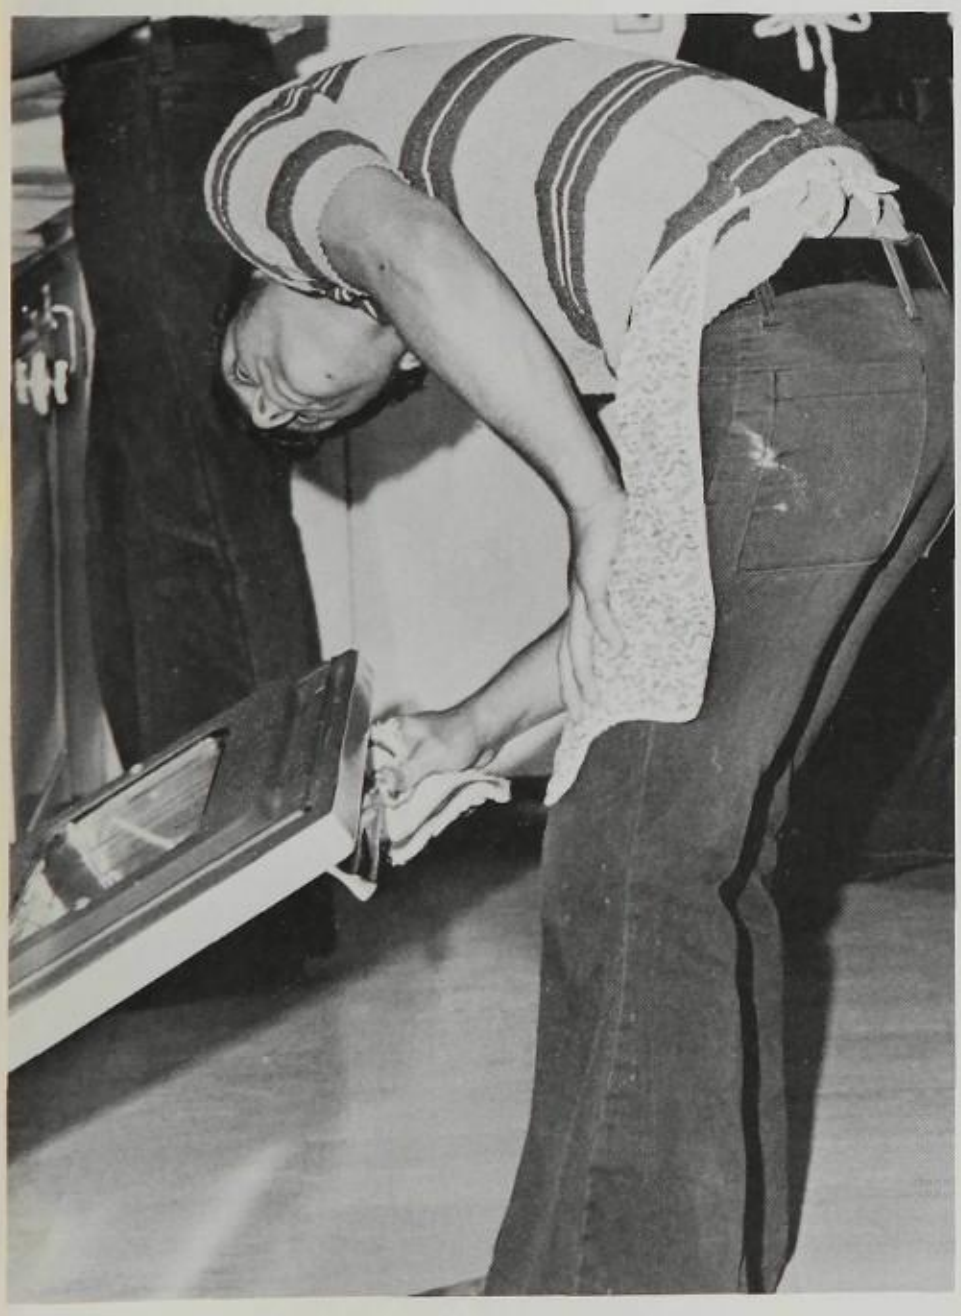
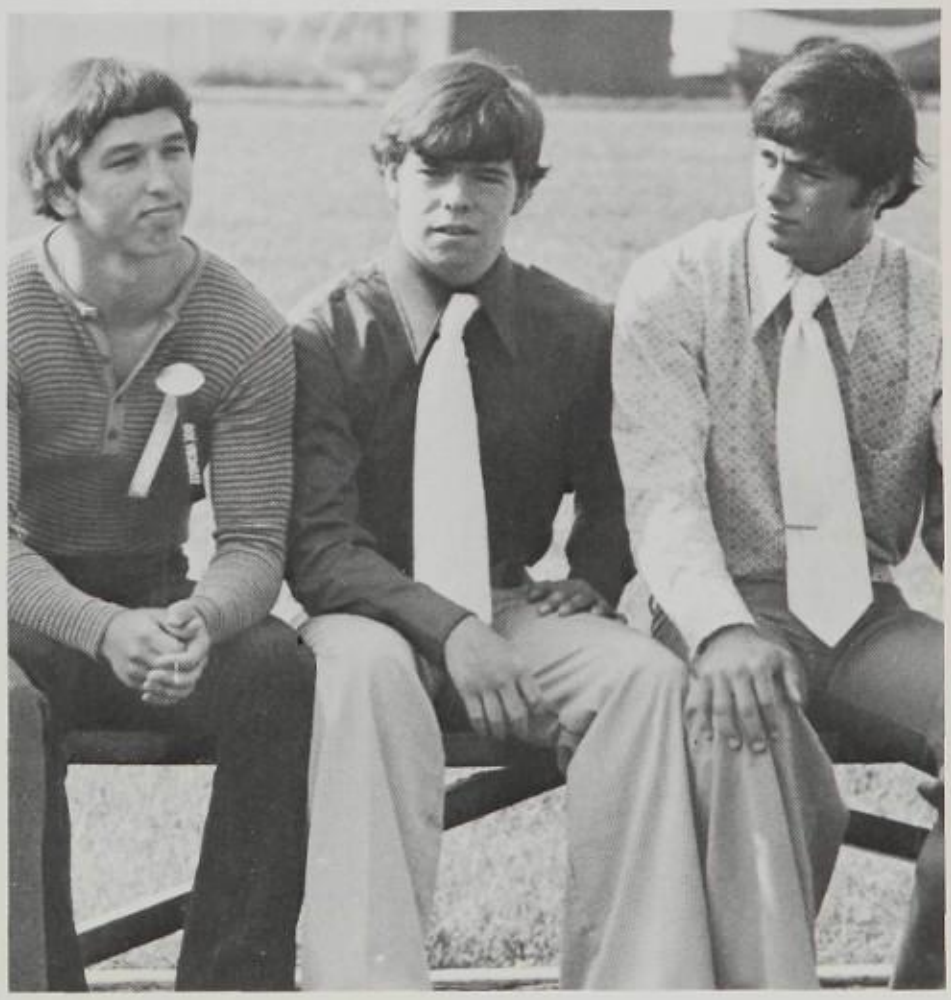
(BELOW) Team behind the team.

A wood shop student masters his craft.





Seniors Rob Smith, Garth Nutter and junior Mark Carr smile as they wait to be announced at the pep rally.

Students gather to see what is so important as senior Art Milke trys to join in.

Effort and energy are fitting

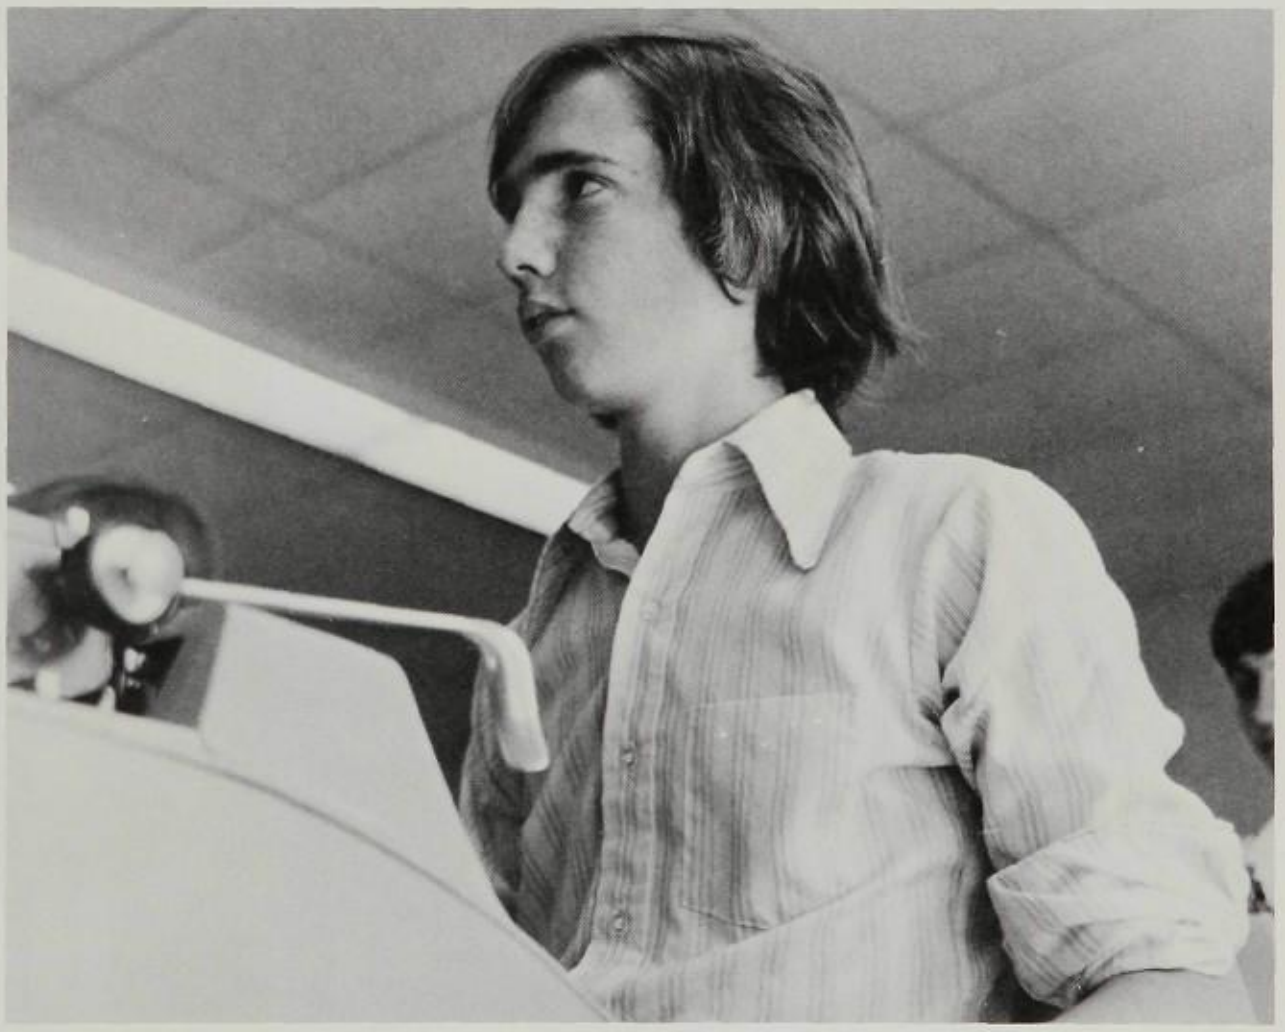
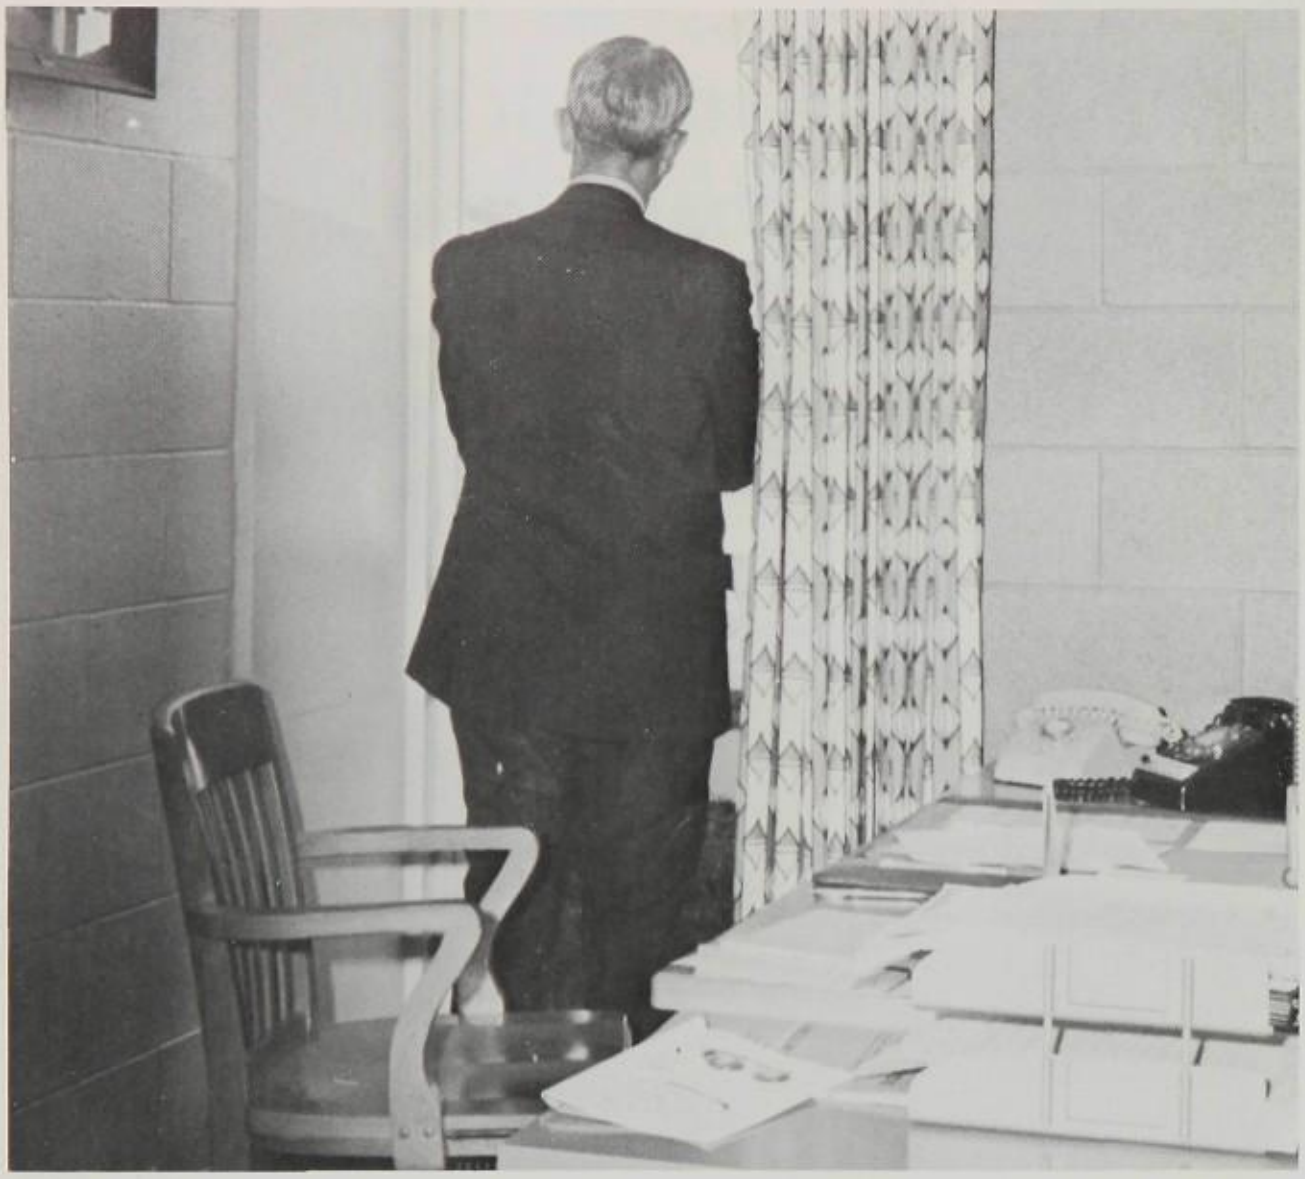
descriptions for our cheerleaders.

Throughout the course of a regular day, each student's life and character are being molded for the future.

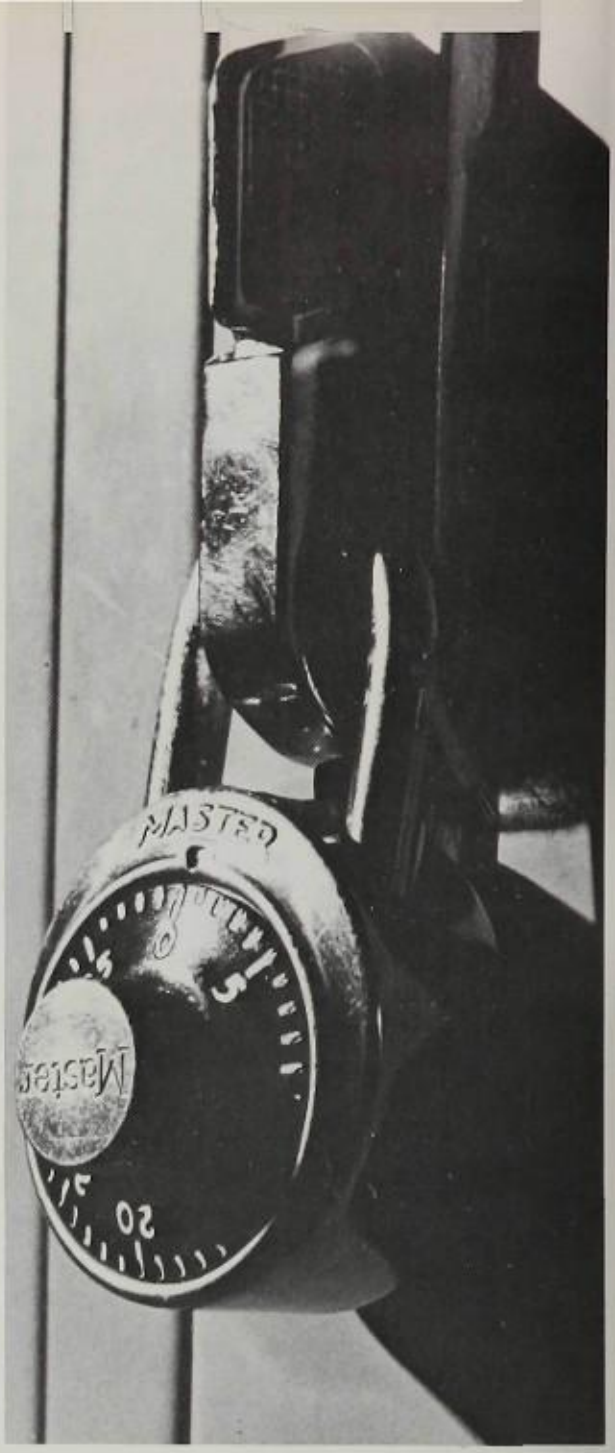
A telephone call seems to be more important than the photographer.



Senior Mark McCreary pays close attention to instructions given in typing class.

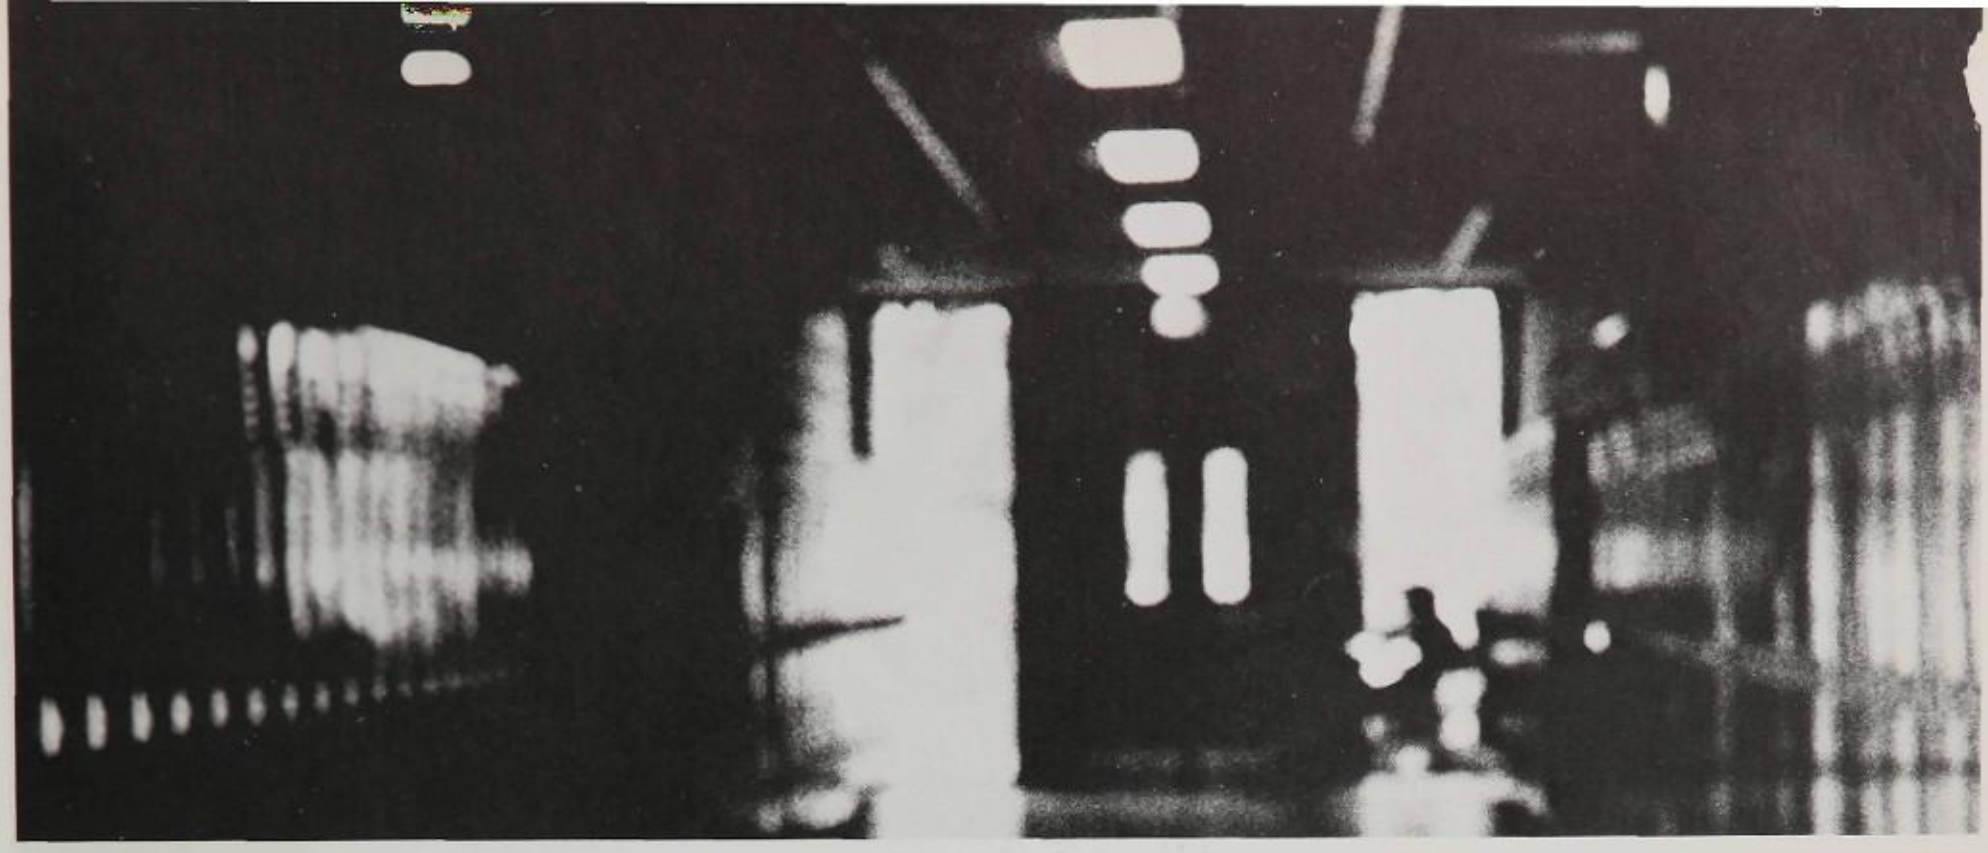


Mr. Evans takes time from his daily routine to look out his office window.



A lock symbolizes security and individual ownership.

Junior Jackie Hilt uses her free time to study outside.



Emotional problems sometimes become intolerable and solitude seems to be the only answer.

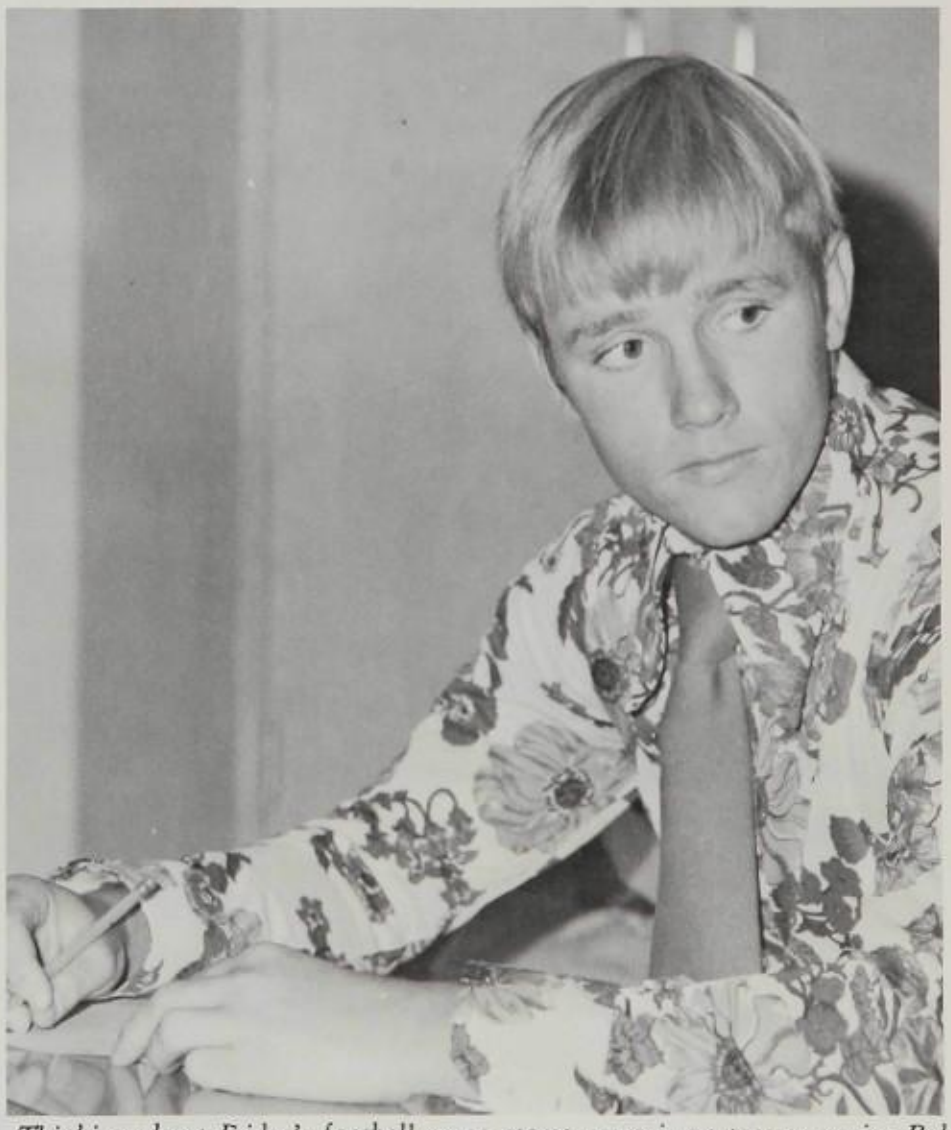
Junior Jody Goettge struggles to find the right answer to a homework assignment.

Sometimes a study hall snooze takes precedent over that next period's test.

Inside the stadium is where Coach Howe instructs the football team on their plays.

(RIGHT) Senior Rick Stevens seems to be deep in thought on the way to his next class.

Despite many conflicts of ideas, the best choice is usually made.



Thinking about Friday's football game seems more important to senior Bob Giroux than his teacher's comments.

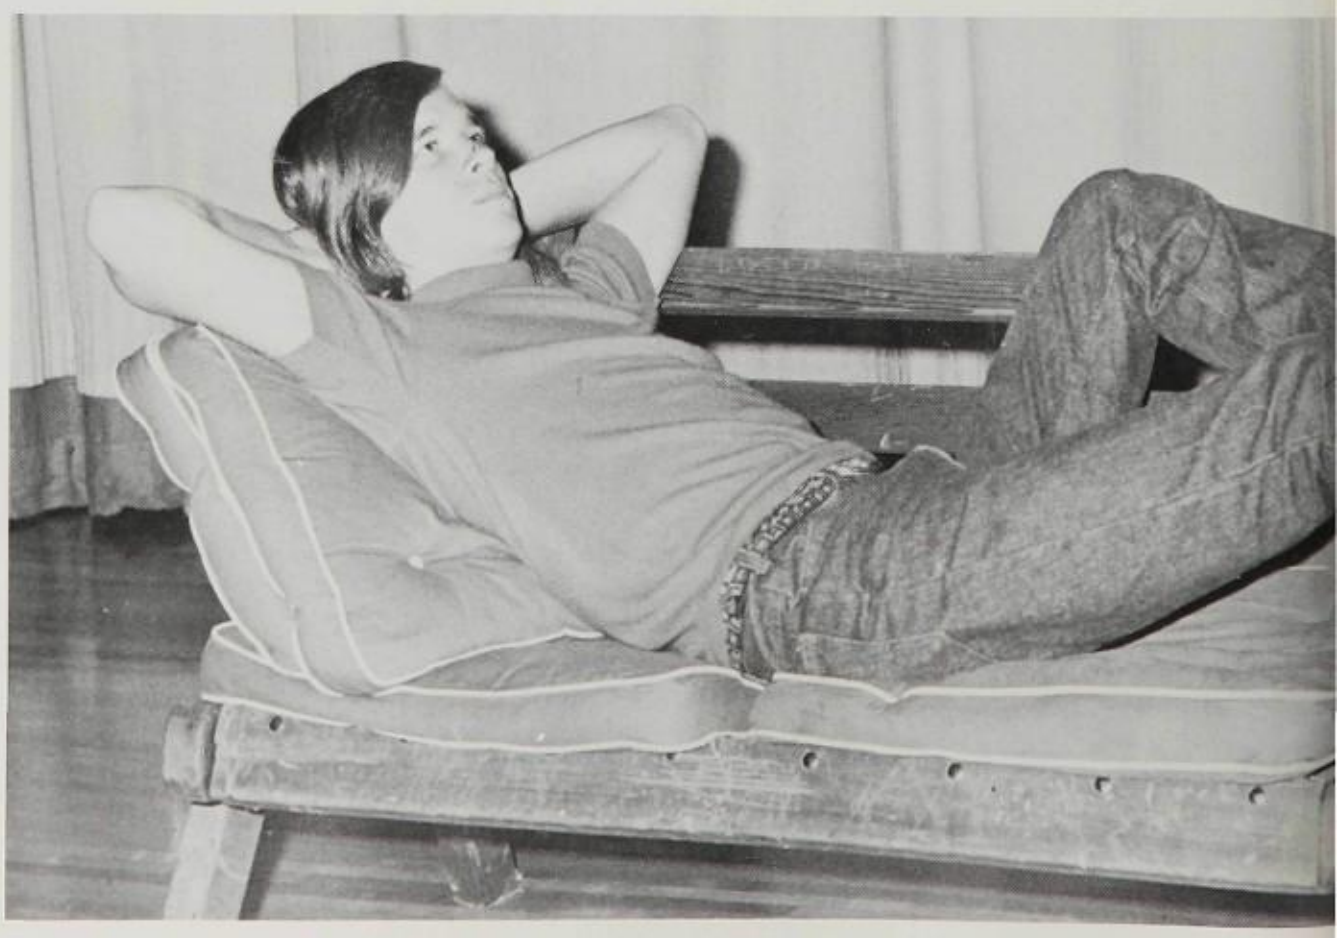
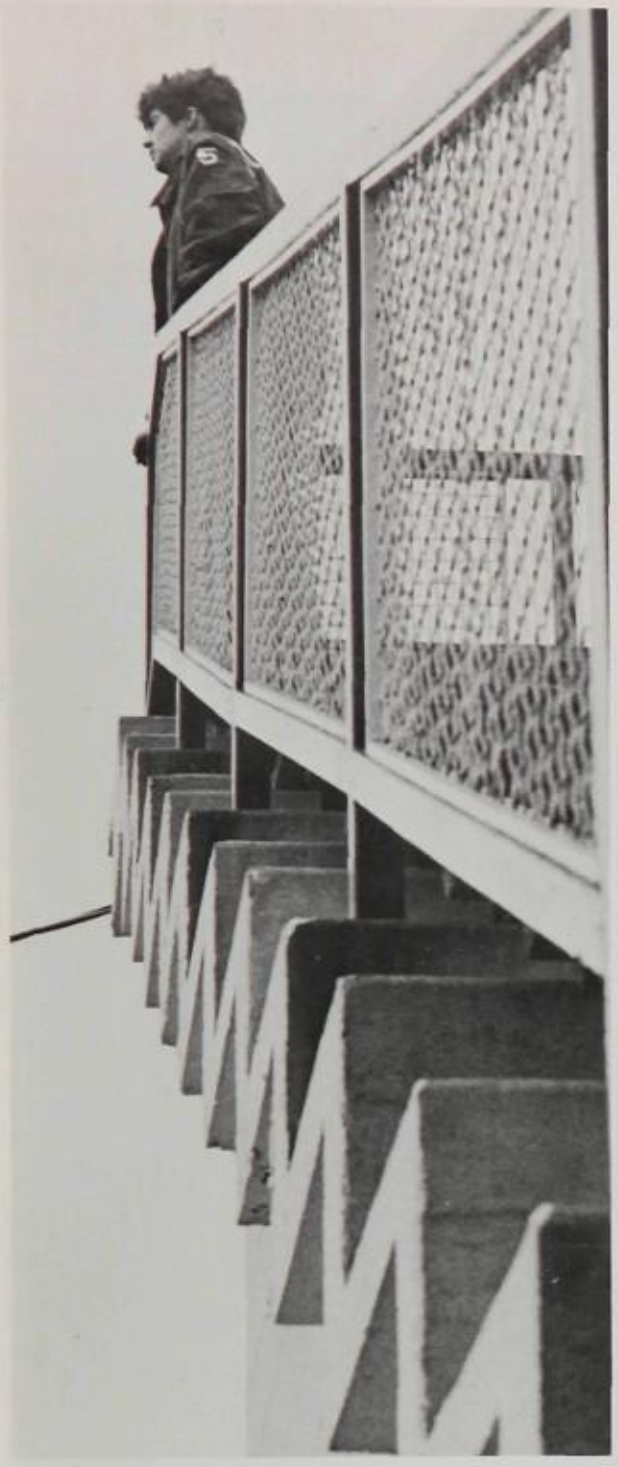
Talking is always more important than studying!



(RIGHT) Senior Jeff Pullins lounges between his "frantic" stage crew schedule.

Memories are made up of thoughts that in time become a thing of the past.



Sophomore Bill Henning overlooks the world from his lonely vantage point.

Mr. Lakeman finishes a last minute preparation for History class.

Mr. Lewis isn't quite sure whatever it is that seems so funny to Senior Beth Titus.

One is a number divided by two: me and you.

(RIGHT) The closer they get the better she looks.

If it's too far to walk you can always ride, as Junior Katie Lafferty does.

Senior Kathy Janszen and Junior Nancy Chadwell lead the "Super" seniors cheering section.

"With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy."
— Desiderata, Max Ehrmann

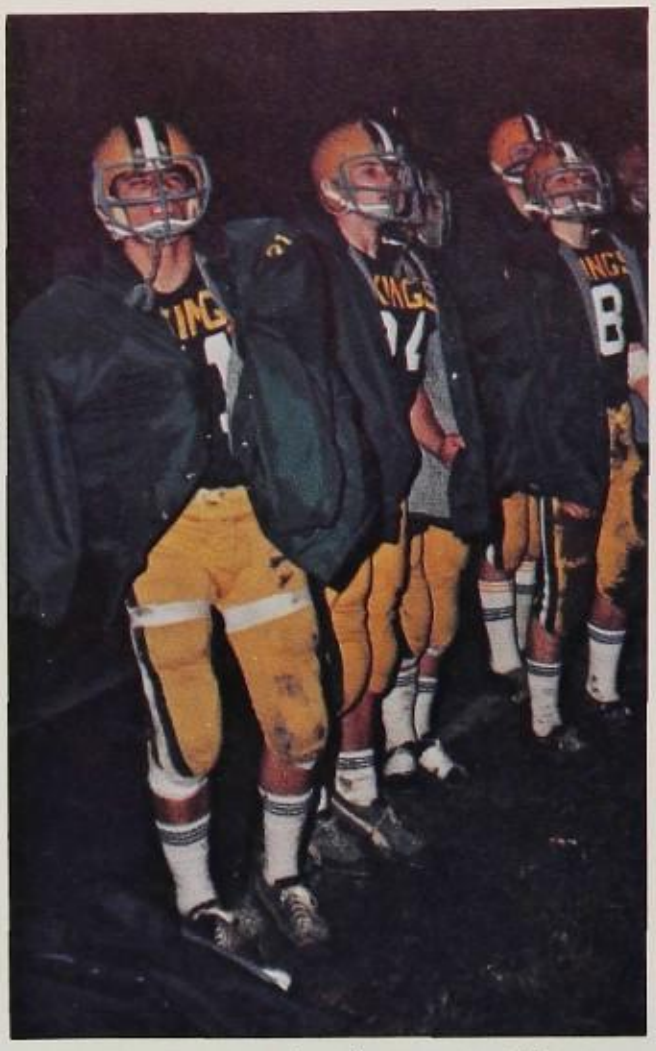
The Senior Class of 1973 elected Patty Bartlett, Treasurer; Paul Van Doorn, President; Jeff Suver, Vice-President; Rob Smith, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Cel Casey, Secretary.



City Champ team members keep a watchful eye on all plays from the sidelines.

Valkyrie Co-Captain, Sherry Buckley and Captain, Cindi Engberg applaud a Viking touchdown.

In his first act as Senior President, Paul declared November 13, as a "senior holiday."

The excitement of the Convention carried over to McDonalds where many seniors celebrated the unofficial cut day.

The officers coordinated the planning of Senior activities with the help of the Executive Committee and Mr. Zaayer.

The teamwork of the Conley brothers was strong against the Panthers, as junior Dave makes a vital block for his senior brother Dean.

The crowning of Kathy Janszen during the halftime of the Linden McKinley game was the highlight of the 1973 Homecoming festivities. The crowning climaxed a week of traditional pep rallies, speeches, and voting, as the student body made their final choice.

The Big Green Machine made Kathy's evening even more exciting with their 7-6 victory.

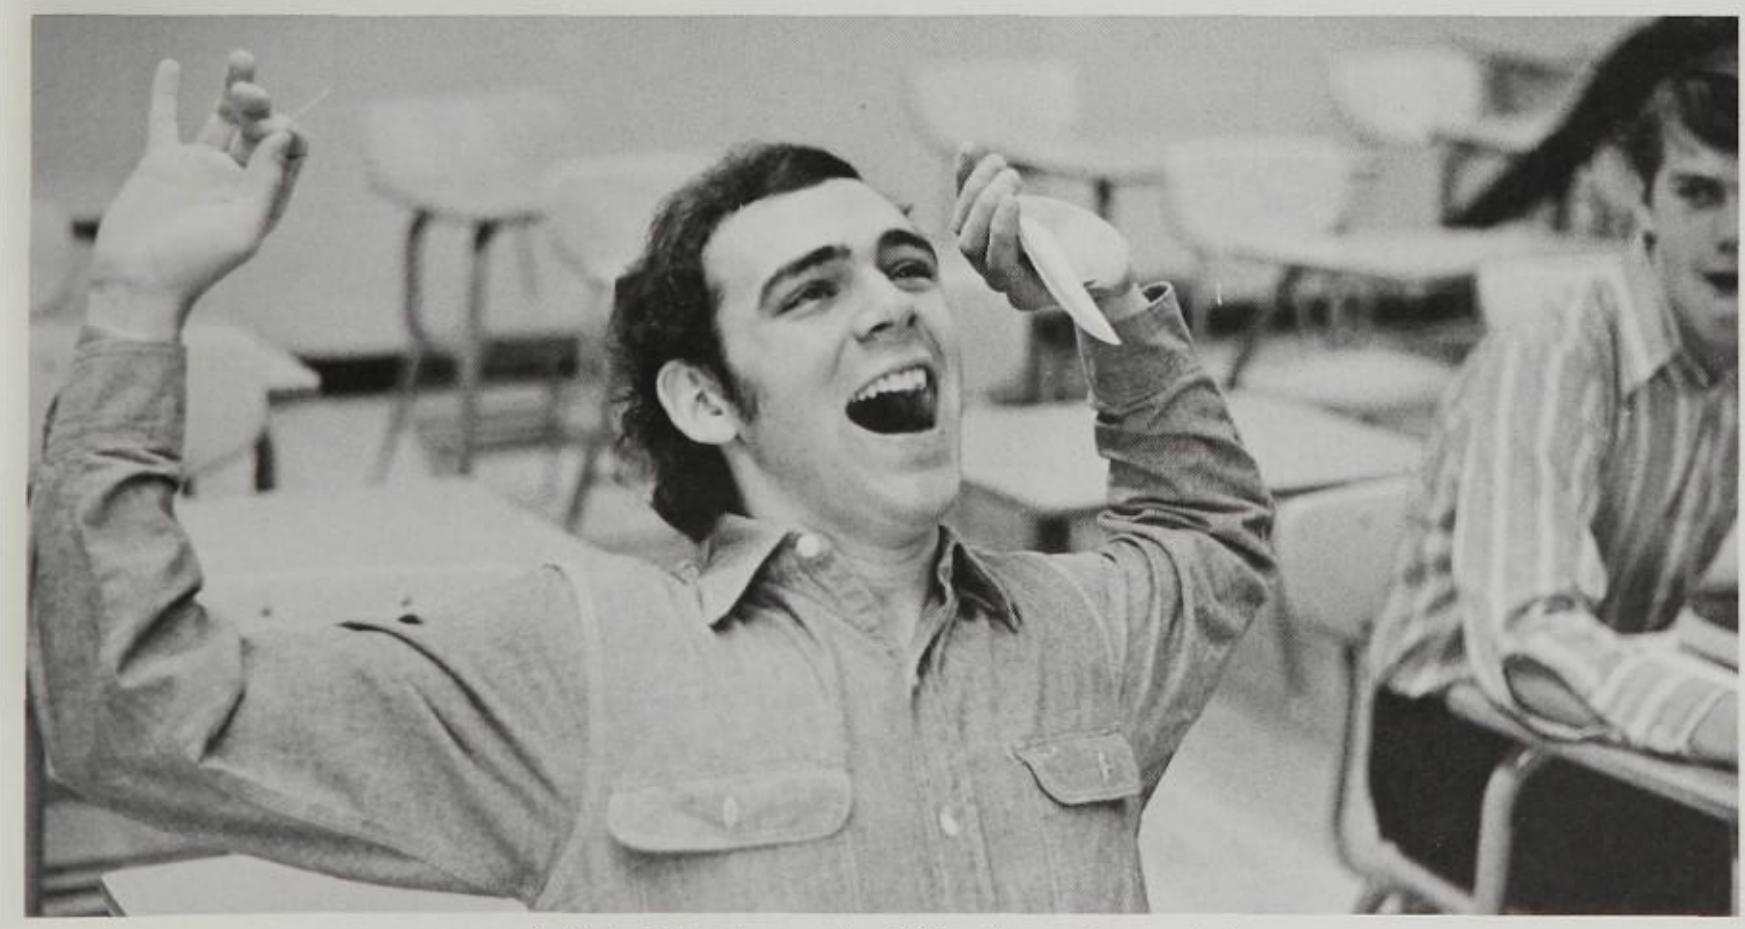
"Saturday In The Park" was the theme of the Saturday night dance, which put the finishing touch to the Homecoming activities.

Couples enjoyed the music of Bill Bracketts Band at the Homecoming dance.

Student Council President Tyron Yun was among the first to congratulate Kathy after the crowning.

Senior Gina Palumbo uses the convenient table in the lobby to catch up on last minute homework.

Senior Sue Fox admires her friends new nail polish.

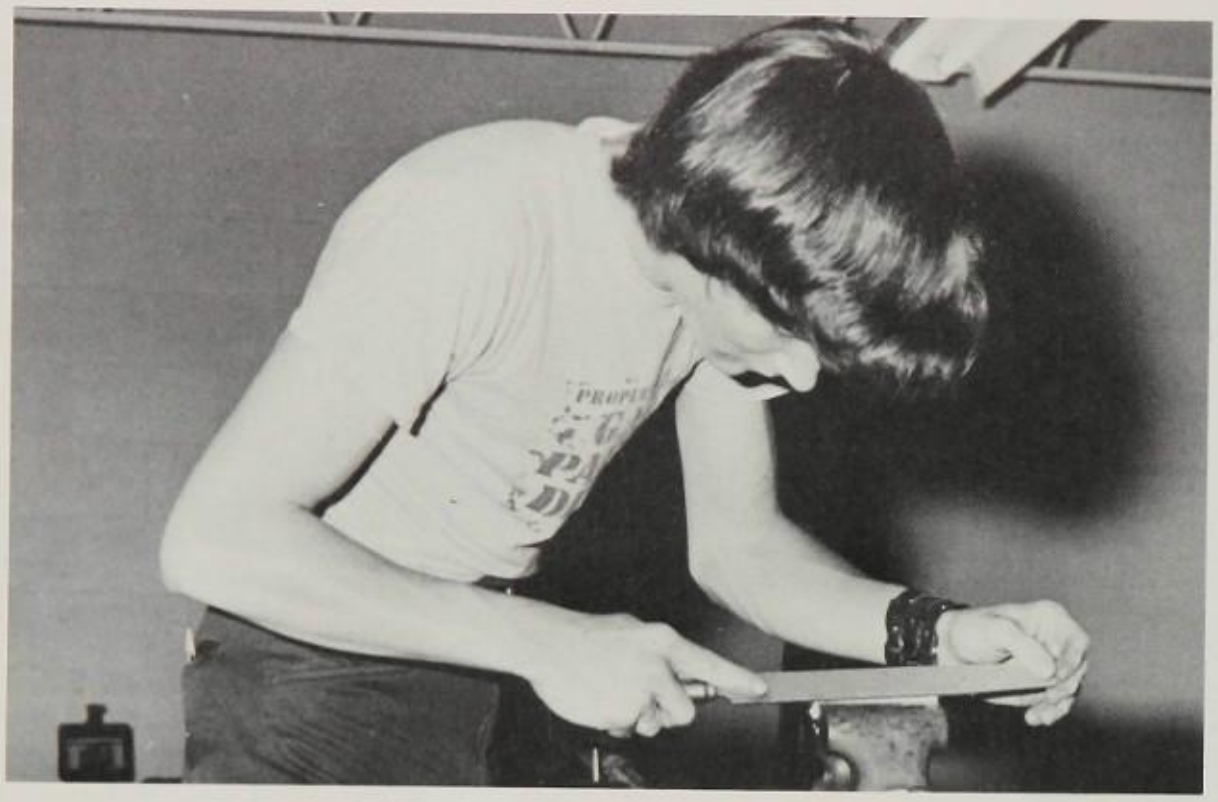


Suddenly Bob Adams awakes, "We will now have a quiz."

All Things

Must Pass . . .

The Senior year is always that extra special time in high school. In between jobs, school, church and community activities, the "Super Seniors" found time to reminisce past school years.



Now they prepare for college, jobs, marriage, the military, or whatever the future holds for them.

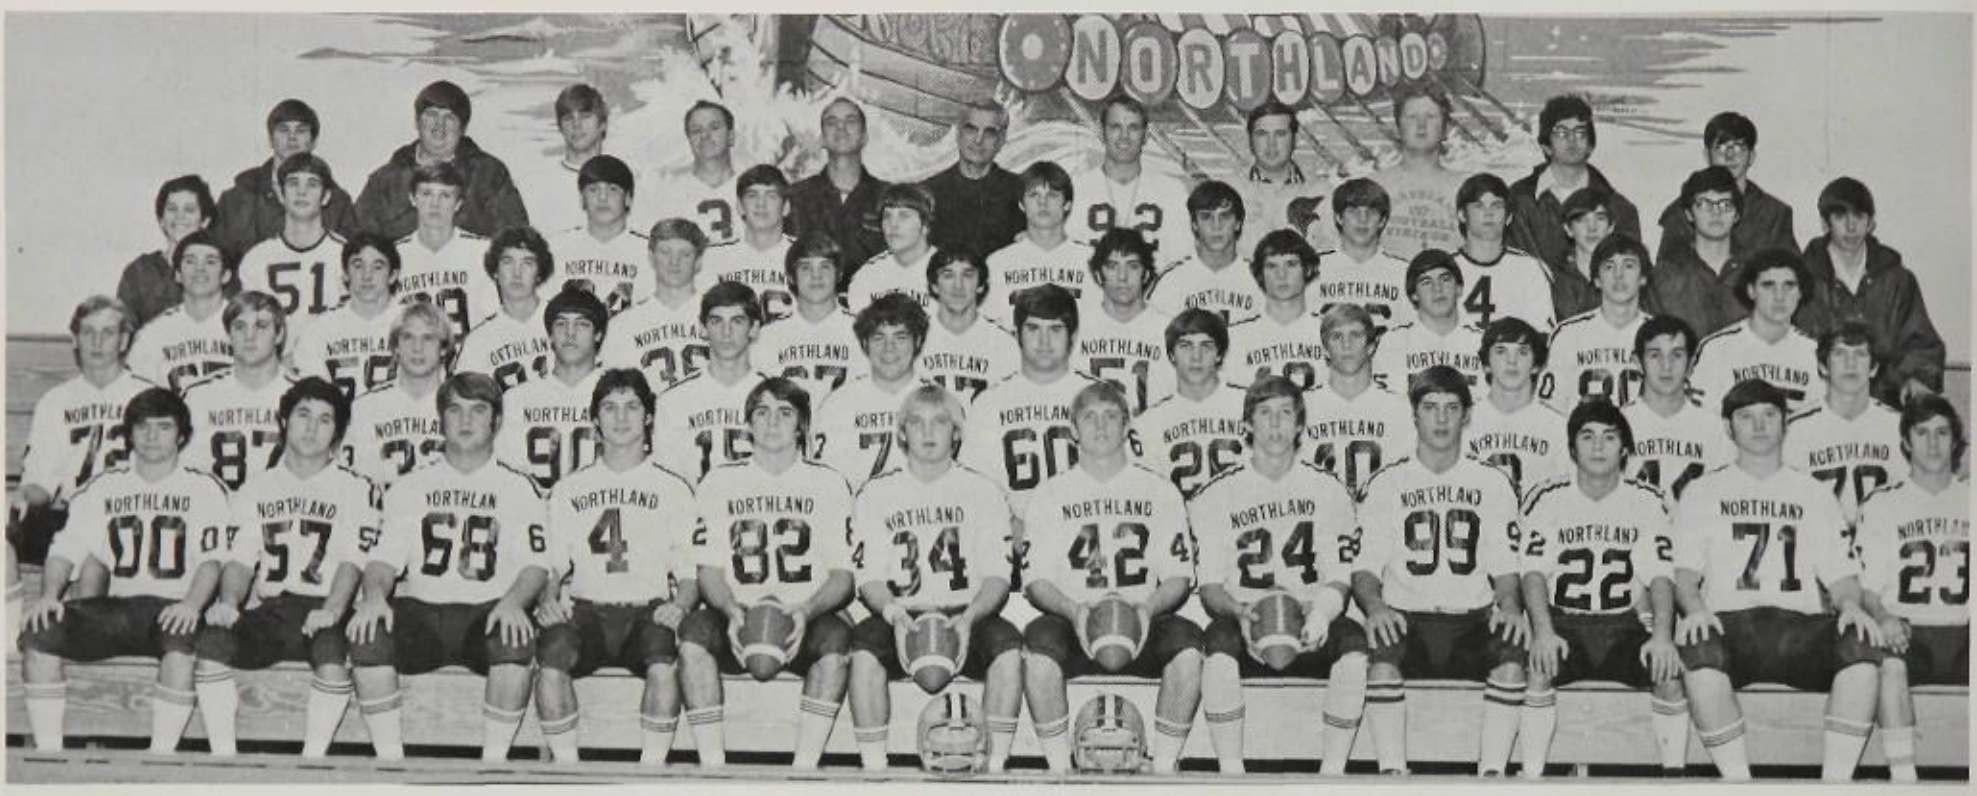
Vikings Capture City Crown

We're No. 1!



The 1972-73 Football City Champions

Led by 24 seniors, the Viking football team finished up the season with a 9-1 record and the City League crown. Offense leaders were All City members Dean Conley, Bob Giroux, and Neil Ferree, who were also named to the All-District Squad and received Honorable Mention for All-State. Garth Nutter headed the defense with eight interceptions and was named to All-City and All-District squads, with an Honorable Mention for All-State. Jeff Collins and Bob Renner were named to the All-City squad for their defensive abilities. Jeff Hutchinson was named "Most Valuable Player." Although the Vikings were one of the smallest city teams, hard hitting and execution brought them a most successful season.

The 1972 Northland Viking Reserve Football team brought Northland its first City League title. Head Coach Gil Lakeman's team had an 8-0 record overall, 6-0 in the City. With an outstanding defense led by Viking back Ed Onslow and defensive back Ken Dodson, the defense was a big credit with two shutouts. The offense, which averaged 22 points per game, was led by quarterback Jerry Chaney and fullback Andy Ferree.

Hard Practice Yields 7-11 Record

"The boys worked hard during practice, and had a lot of fun," Coach Rittenhouse said of his 1973 Varsity basketball team. The team completed a successful season, with a record of 7-11. Five of the game losses were within six points, which affected the team's overall standings. Junior Jud Wood made All-City, while Senior Bob Adams and Junior Jim Toney received All-City Honorable mention.

Viking wrestlers placed third in the City Wrestling meet February 16, held at Northland High. Northland led after the first and second rounds, but was overtaken in the finals. Senior Mike Huston and junior Steve Wenger took first place in the 132 lbs. and 175 lbs. weight classes respectively. Sophomore Ron Lincicome, 98-pounder placed second, as did Bob Dodson and Tony Molino.

The Northland reserve wrestling team edged Walnut Ridge 71-69 to capture the reserve City Tournament on February 15 and 17. John Payne, 155 lbs, and Charlie Lausch, 167 lbs. finished in first place for the reserve matmen. Second place winners were Jim Wood, Tim Daniels, and Tim Serrott, while Don Payne, Joe Janszen, and Jack Severence took third place. The Vikings were 5-2 in the dual meets.

Student Council Voices Students' Opinions

Student Council has been the student voice this year at a time when the youth of America has found the need for speaking out. Under the leadership of Ty Yun the council discussed Homecoming Events, Sadie Hawkins Dance, and Senior All Night Party.

Representatives were elected last year and there is a proportionate amount of sophomores, juniors, and seniors to make sure that each class gets equal representation.

Extended-Day Requires More Help

Office Assistants helped secretaries and members of the faculty by running errands, typing schedules, filing, and running the copy machine.

Having student helpers relieves much of the work load. Because of the extended day schedule this year, even more helpers were needed. Northland students came through, as usual, to help out.

Mr. Pelkey and Mr. Wyncoop kept busy changing schedules between semesters.

Varsity "N"
1972-1973

The 1972-1973 Varsity "N" was quite active again this year. Collecting canned goods for needy families, at Christmas time was one of their activities.

There was also a basketball game between our Varsity "N" and Brookhaven's Varsity "B." In an exciting contest, Northland pulled through and won by 'one Point.'

One of the many activities sponsored by the Athletic Boosters, was the completion of the stadium, which was finished in the 'summer of '72!'

Chess Team Participates in State Tournaments.

The Northland High School Chess Club has been involved in several types of tournament competition this year. In December, four of the top players went to Cleveland to compete in the Great Lakes High School Chess Tournament. Northland placed third, out of over twenty teams that competed.

The Chess Club had two teams entered in the Central Ohio School Chess Association (C.O.S.C.A.) Each team that was entered, had to play and win nine games to receive a trophy. The Chess Club also participated in the Mid-Ohio Team Chess Festival. Congratulations on a good year!

The yearbook staff was under the supervision of a new staff advisor this year, Miss Nancy Morris. Miss Morris was editor of her school yearbook and her experience and new ideas were very helpful in putting together the 1973 Valhalla.

The yearbook editor, Teri Sherburn, as well as all section editors, worked very hard this year to meet many various deadlines. Each staff member put forth a great amount of effort to assure that the 1973 Valhalla is the best ever!

Mass Choir Presents Christmas Pageant

The Northland High School Vocal Music Department accompanied by the Orchestra, highlighted the 1972 Christmas Season with the presentation of "The Many Moods of Christmas." The colorful Christmas Window directly behind the choir was constructed entirely by members of the Vocal Music Department. Special thanks goes to Mr. Thurman Davis for his time, effort, and co-operation in its construction.

Young Adults put the finishing touch on their number in the Variety Show.

Concert Chorale Displays New Uniforms

This year, as a special added attraction, the Concert Chorale bought tuxedos and each girl made a beautiful white formal.

The Chorale was, by far, the most active group this year. The group performed for many outside organizations, including the Ohio Teachers' AFL—CIO, as well performing for many school functions. One of the highlights this year was singing "Cherish" in the 1973 Viking Variety Show.

Mr. Evans Visits Japan

On Thursday, October 5, Principal Leslie M. Evans left Northland for a North Central Association of School Evaluators study of U.S. military base schools for children of American servicemen in Japan.

Accompanying Mr. Evans were two Department of Defense Officials and the assistant superintendent of schools of Wichita, Kansas. The men visited eight schools on Army, Navy, and Air Force bases, making suggestions for improving curriculum, scheduling, and student involvement and activities.

Mr. Evans was welcomed back to Port Columbus on Friday November 17, by band members, students, faculty members, secretaries, and friends. When he returned to Northland on the following Monday, he found his office somewhat "rearranged" in an array of green and gold toilet paper.

Guidance Department

Northland reorganized the Guidance Department this year to include a new counselor, Mr. Ronald Rabold, and to introduce a new method of counseling. Mr. Rabold was transferred from the art department to the guidance department to meet state standards of one counselor for every 400 students attending the school. Veteran counselors, Mr. Terry Schreiber, Mrs. Cherrye Lucas and Mrs. Helen Lias (chairwoman) were still kept busy, even with the additional help.

The new system of counseling this year was a cooperative effort between all the counselors. Each student was assigned a counselor at the beginning of the year and that counselor served all aspects of that student's counseling needs.

Junior Jack listens to Mr. Rabold's explanation of his test scores.

Language Department

Amid a term of active programs, both academic and extracurricular, the division of Foreign Language studies was headed by an experienced staff this year.

With department chairman and Latin teacher Carolyn White, the program's faculty consists of Mrs. Helga Muladore, German; Miss Linda Whittington, Russian; Miss Jackie McNeil, French, with Spanish instruction shared between Miss Linda Hoaja and Mrs. Edith Wolfe.

The Latin program was highlighted with the conception of a new projected studies provision, entitled Advanced Placement. It provided for study of the language in advanced of the fourth and fifth years.

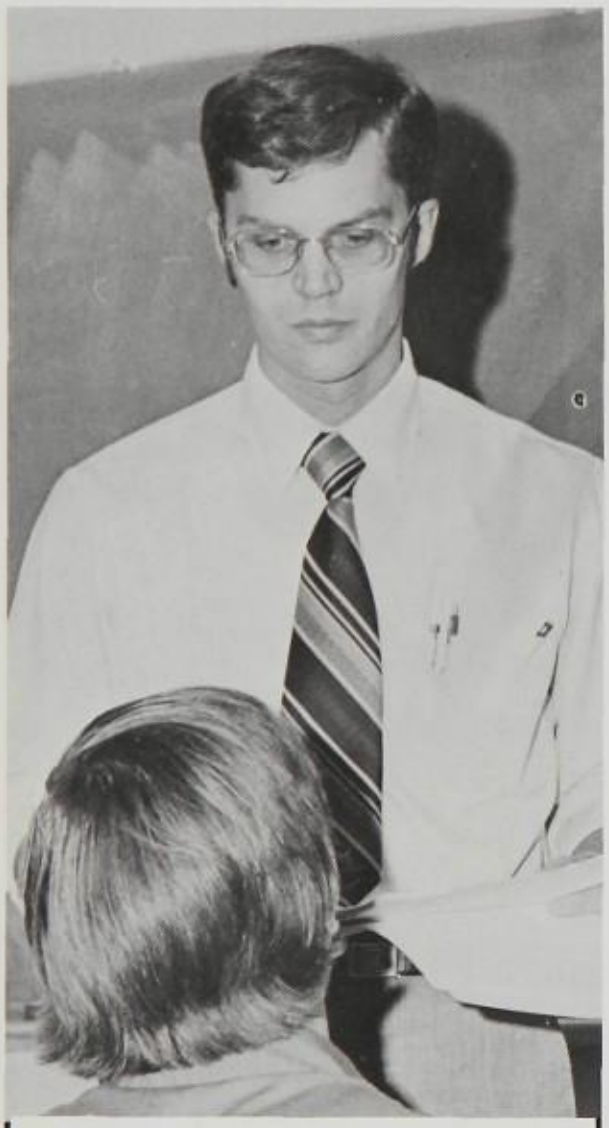
Math Department

Northland's math department headed by Mr. Huber, did not change its curriculum much from last year. The math topics course was offered and added a new class in slide rule. Mr. Smeltz tried out a new method of "open classroom" teaching for geometry students this year, which gave the student a chance to work at his own pace and on his own level. New methods of teaching math are always being used, as new forms of math are discovered.



Mr. James Huber

Physical Education Department

The physical education department offered several different activities.

Some of them included volleyball, basketball, tennis, gymnastics, soccer, and baseball.

This year the girls physical education course offered self-defense, which taught girls how to protect themselves if necessary.

The Health classes this year provided the students with experienced speakers and movies.

The chairman of the physical education department was Mr. Wickiser.

Mr. Thomas Wickiser

Mr. Robert White
Biology

Mr. Frank Howe
Biology; Head Football Coach

History Department

The History Department was rearranged this year to involve much more student participation. The Man and His Environment course has taken the place of the traditional Principles of Democracy. This course was taught in the new team teaching method in which Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Weeks, and Mr. Stafford combined their classes with each of the teachers specialized in a certain area of study.

World History was also revised this year, being divided into world cultures, instead of the traditional chronological history.

Mr. Stafford was department chairman. The new teachers were Mr. Smith, a 1968 graduate of Northland, Mr. Wolff, Mr. Clouse, and Mr. Bonar.

Mr. Thomas White
World Area Studies, History II; Assistant Wrestling and Football Coach

Miss Chokreff answers another teacher's question in the teacher's lounge, while Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Weeks look on.

What your job competition tomorrow... will be wearing this year

Consider this — employers know how valuable Air Force training is. The finest schools teach top-pay skills like jet engine mechanic, electronic data process ing, avionics, accountant and hundreds of other technical and administrative specialties. Are you willing to let the other guy have all this — plus good pay, paid vacations, the very best of medical care and travel and excitement, too. Get the jump on your competition — See your Air Force Recruiter for the full story.

When you think about it, the family photographer falls somewhere in the family doctor-lawyer classification. The photographer, like the doctor and lawyer, is called upon when major events in your life occur. With a fine studio portrait you can relive in later years the happiness of the engagement, the wedding, the arrival of children. A photograph is part of forever, and our studio takes this responsibility seriously.

*We are proud to be the photographer chosen to photograph your graduating class. We hope that this is the beginning of a lifelong relationship.

Thank You, Your Official Photographer, REMBRANDT STUDIOS

Debby Davis makes it obvious that she cannot say "no."

Kent Conder and Lance Corven showed that when you're drunk it's a good idea not to fly a plane.

Debbie Zeeck played her version of "The Summer of 42."

Sue Grahm sings her interpretation of "IF."

Viking Varieties

Northland High School presented their fourth variety show February 23 and 24. The MC's were Dwight Yoakum and Jeff Metzger. Some of the acts were Jody Daulton doing a sign interpretation of "IF" sung by Sue Graham, Young Adults singing "Brand New Morning," and Dwight Yoakum doing "Blue Suede Shoes." Mr. Lewis commented on the show by saying, "It was marvelous and one of Northland's best Viking Varieties."

The dance line performs to the Cohan Medley.

Cheryl,
To the girl who
I love very much,
I really mean that too.
I hope we have a great summer together and summers to come. With you.
I know I will just burn Don't forget Mr. Millers Topics class and how boring it was. That's one place I really could catch up on my sleep. I really hope I can show you how much I love you Cheryl, and I hope you'll understand my ways of showing it. I want so much to make it with ya, and it really means a lot to me. I'm going to give it all I have and I just hope its enough to get you to really love me the same way I really mean every-thing ya said to ya and I hope ya mean everything ya say to me. Love ya always, forever and ever. Rich

Hey Love ya. Rich + Cheryl

Cheryl, Thanks
so much for the letter. I really appreciate it.
I'm sorry that I'm not able to be there for graduation. I would've loved to see you graduate. I hope you have a great time
at Ohio State and I'm sure you will.
Remember that I'm always here for you if you need me.
Love,
Mom

Dear Mom,
Thank you so much for the graduation
money. I'm sorry
I couldn't be there for graduation
but I had to work. I'll remember that you're always there for me
if I need you.
Love,
Cheryl

Cheryl
You're really tuff - pretty looking girl. With your looks you should be a model. You have a really fantastic personality which makes you a lot of fun to be around. Wish you also lived next year, and hope we can have more bathroom conferences. Have be good
